TWO MEN ATTEMPT TRANSPACIFIC FLIGHT

LARGE GUIDE PARTY FROM ALL CANADA ARRIVE HERE TO-DAY

Nearly 300 Guiders Arrive This Afternoon for Week in Camp at University School Grounds; First Dominion-wide Camp in History of Guide Movement in Canada; Notable Members With Party

Girl Guides invaded the city this afternoon for the opening of the Diamond Jubilee Camp at the University School grounds at Mount Tolmie.

Guide activity prevailed at the C.P.R. Depot at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon when 300 Girl Guides from all parts of the Dominion arrived from Vancouver on the C.P.R. steamer. A fleet of fifty cars under the direction of Mrs. L. A. Genge met the visiting guides and transported them to the camp at Mount Tolmie where Miss Mara, commandant of the camp, waited to receive them, assisted by Miss Leighton.

A wonderful trip across Canada was enjoyed by the party. Most of the girls from Eastern Canada had never traveled farther west than Winnipeg, and Mrs. H. D. Warren, chief commissioner for Canada, stated that the trip had been an inspiration to them. Across the continent the girls were royally entertained. At Fort William and Port Arthur they visited the grain elevators and were driven around the cities. At Regina the Girl Guides of that district held a luncheon at the Hotel Saskatchewan and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police put on a military drill in their honor. Moose Jaw guides entertained with teas and motor drives.

Half a day was spent at Calgary where the Calgary guides gave a luncheon at the Palliser Hotel at which the speakers were Mayor Thomas and Sir Archibald Macdonnell, chief of the Boys Scouts for Alberta. The most delightful visit of the trip was voted to be at Banff where the girls spent three days in swimming, motoring, hiking and riding.

RECEPTIONS HERE

Plans for the entertainment of the guiders in Victoria are now practically complete. This afternoon an informal reception was held at the home of Sir Frank and Lady Barnard at Sea Terrace, Esquimalt. To-morrow afternoon Mrs. Phillips will hold a reception at her home at the Naval Dockyard, Esquimalt. Saturday the guides will be "at home" to friends and visitors when they will stage a drill display and the Brownies will give their famous war cry. Sunday will be a free day for the guides, when they will be able to visit what points of interest in the city they desire. On Monday a long motor drive over the Malahat Highway will be taken and on Tuesday the guides will be

MANY APARTMENTS OUTSIDE THE LAW

Official Says Numerous Structures in Vancouver Below Standards

Vancouver, July 14.—If an order were to be issued to bring all apartment houses in this city up to present day standards as regards building regulations it would be necessary to tear down part of the city and rebuild it, declared Building Inspector A. J. Bird, at this morning's session of the coroner's inquest on the deaths in the fire in the Royal Alexandra Apartment House here last Friday.

Mr. Bird, examined by J. A. Thomas provincial fire marshal, as to the construction of the Royal Alexandra Apartment building, admitted the older apartment buildings did not comply with present-day standards. In a great many cases the buildings were fundamentally designed so the new regulations could not be carried out. Many buildings originally erected in the west end of the city as private dwellings were now housing four and five families, thus adding to his difficulties in having the regulations complied with.

MANY CHANGES

Orders he issued during the year for adjustments to provide for better fire protection ran into the hundreds in the course of a year, he said.

In regard to the Royal Alexandra Apartment House, Mr. Bird said the construction was of the type generally accepted in the west as mill construction, which was generally considered reasonably safe.

The witness gave it as his opinion that the loss of eight lives in the apartment house was not due to the type of construction of the building.

The Royal Alexandra was better than the building by-law required at the time of erection, Mr. Bird said.

CFCT TO BROADCAST RESULTS OF VOTING

Radio station CFCT will to-night broadcast returns on the results of the two money by-laws voted on to-day by property owners of Victoria.

Figures will be given every fifteen minutes until the final result is known.

Chinese Factions Make Battle Plans

London, July 14.—The civil war in China appears to be entering another phase, says a Reuter dispatch from Shanghai, which gives a Peking report that General Chiang Kai-shek, Moderate Nationalist leader, is withdrawing to Pukow, fearing an attack on his headquarters in Nanking by the forces of the rival Hankow Nationalist Government.

A wireless from Kiukia states many Hankow troops have arrived there and that General Chang Fu-Kuei, commanding them, declares he will attack Nanking.

B. C. FARMS BREAK ALL RECORDS IN PRODUCING CROP WORTH $71,362,209

Agricultural production in British Columbia last year totaled $71,362,209, broke all previous records and topped earlier official estimates by $2,000,000, according to final figures prepared by G. H. Stewart, statistician of the Department of Agriculture, and given out by Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, to-day.

The 1926 figure was an increase of $6,208,696 over that of 1925, or a gain of 9.53 per cent., while compared with the output ten years ago it marked an advance of over one hundred per cent.

EXPORTS SHOW GAIN

Total imports of agricultural products during the year amounted to $21,059,361, an increase of $1,483,845, or 7.58 per cent. Imports from other provinces in Canada are valued at $17,437,350, as compared with $16,755,676 in 1925, while imports from foreign points are valued at $3,622,011, an increase of $802,171 over the previous year.

As an offset to the increased value of importations, a satisfactory feature of agricultural production is the large increase shown in the value of exports. It is estimated that the total value of exports for the year amounted to $8,408,638, an increase of $1,676,929, or 24.91 per cent over those of 1925.

FRUITS INCREASE

Records show the fruit crop to be the largest on record. Prevailing prices for all fruits were slightly less than the previous year.

The total production of all fruits amounted to 213,580,000 pounds, as compared with 136,082,000 pounds in 1925, representing an increased yield of 77,498,000 pounds, or 56.94 per cent. The total value of the fruit crop is placed at $7,585,520, which is an increase of $2,171,626.

The total apple crop was 175,414,000 pounds, as compared with 122,878,000 pounds in 1925.

Other tree fruits showed an increase of 421.57 per cent. in quantity production. The 1926 crop of such miscellaneous fruits amounted to 25,432,000 pounds, as against 4,876,000 pounds in 1925.

Small fruits produced amounted to 12,734,000 pounds, valued at $1,307,432, as compared with a production of 8,328,000 pounds, valued at $1,019,885, in 1925, indicating an increase of 52.90 per cent. in quantity and 28.19 per cent. in value.

LITTLE HOPE COMES FROM NAVY DEBATE

Geneva Dispatch Says Session of Conference Indicates Limitation Failure

London, July 14.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Geneva says:

"The general impression here to-night at the end of to-day's much-discussed plenary session of the Three-Power Naval Conference, was that it virtually marked the end of the conference at least as a means of securing a limitation of armaments.

POSITIONS EXPLAINED

Geneva, July 14.—The plenary session of the Three-Power Naval Limitation Conference here to-day, which had been looked forward to with much speculation by observers, came to an end to-night with no rupture of the negotiations.

On the contrary, all the speeches made by the offical representatives of Great Britain, the United States and Japan, although they unequivocally explained their various positions on the cruiser problem, were distinctly temperate in tenor and breathed a note of hope that the conference would eventually succeed.

Rt. Hon. W. C. Bridgeman, First Lord of the British Admiralty and head of the British delegation to the conference, speaking during the session, declared nothing had occurred at the conference which imperilled the good relations between the nations represented.

The delegates adjourned with the understanding there would be another session at a time to be fixed by the secretary of the conference.

PLENARY SESSION NEEDED

During his speech Mr. Bridgeman said the British delegation had asked for a plenary session because it believed the atmosphere of the conference was being vitiated by gross misrepresentations of the British case in certain quarters. He declared some trouble had been caused by parties who would rejoice at the failure of the conference.

Even if no agreement were possible on cruisers, he declared, it would be worth while to reach an agreement on destroyers and submarines. Acceptance of the British proposals, he continued,

HON. E. BRISTOL DIED IN TORONTO

Man Who Sat as Conservative M.P. For Many Years Succumbed To-day

Toronto, July 14.—Hon. Edmund Bristol, K.C., former member of Parliament for East Centre Toronto, died here to-day after a lengthy illness. He represented the constituency as Conservative member in the House of Commons from the time of a by-election in 1905 until 1926. He was not a candidate in the last general election.

He was born sixty-six years ago at Napanee, Ontario. In 1883 he graduated from the University of Toronto with the degree of B.A.

In September, 1889, he married Miss Mary Dorothy Armour, third daughter of the late Mr Justice Armour of the Supreme Court of Canada.

IN MEIGHEN CABINET

From September to December, 1921, he was a Minister without portfolio in the Cabinet led by Right Hon. Arthur Meighen.

In the business world Mr. Bristol was a director of the Canada Steamship Lines Limited, the Dominion Steel Corporation Limited and other corporations.

U.S. Foreign Trade Figures Balance

Washington, July 14.—Foreign trade of the United States during June, as estimated to-day by the Commerce Department, showed an exact balance between exports and imports, the figures being $359,000,000 for both outgoing and incoming commerce.

CANADIAN WORKERS IN FILM INDUSTRY DIRECTOR'S AIM

"I pledge my word as a British subject that I will at all times employ Canadian and local people in all branches of the industry whenever possible," was the satisfactory answer given by Claude Flemming to-day when interviewed by Samuel Howard, president of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council. Representing the Labor Council Mr. Howard called upon Mr. Flemming at the Strathcona Hotel to present two questions regarding the moving picture project on which citizens are voting to-day. The other one was: "As a representative of Labor I would like to ask you, 'Are you going to employ union labor whenever possible.'" "My answer is, 'Yes, at all times,'" was Mr. Flemming's reply to the second question.

Wealthy Honeymoon Couple to Hide From World Three Months

Former Miss Vanderbilt and Henry Gassaway Davis 3rd Register at Empress

MR. AND MRS. H. G. DAVIS

Henry Gassaway Davis third, heir to large estates in Virginia and his bride, formerly Miss Grace Vanderbilt, only daughter of Brigadier-General and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt of New York and one of the world's richest heiresses whose movements were unknown since they left New York after a quiet wedding in the municipal building, arrived in Victoria yesterday.

Coming from Vancouver yesterday afternoon Mr. Davis signed the register, "Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Davis," and the presence of the young couple whose recent marriage without the consent of Miss Vanderbilt's parents created a sensation in New York, was known to few. The happy bridal pair, whose marriage united independent fortunes, and some day may bring together more millions earned by their ancestors in pioneer days in the United States, wish to enjoy their wedding trip quietly and unknown. They were shown to their suite and a in a few minutes had left the hotel together and disappeared until evening.

"Nobody knew we were coming here, and we do not wish to disclose our plans," said Mr. Davis. "We expected to go to Seattle to-day," he said this morning, "but we are unable to. We

TIMES WILL FLASH ELECTION RETURNS

Voters Early at City Market Building This Morning

Three-fifth Majority of Votes Cast Needed to Pass Money Measures

Results of the vote of the electorate on the two money by-laws will be flashed from the windows of The Times this evening as soon as a count can be obtained. A three-fifths majority of the voters polling to-day is necessary to pass either measure, the cold storage and the motion picture by-law agreements hanging in the balance.

OPENS BRISKLY

Voting opened briskly at 8 a.m. to-day, under M. F. Hunter, City Clerk, and returning officer for this election. The first to record his vote was Henry Brown 541 Niagara Street, followed by Mrs. H. Phipps, 1626 Oak Bay Avenue, the first lady to ask for her ballot on the by-law issues. At 9 o'clock this morning the rush fell off, and though ratepayers streamed through the booths all morning the procession was handled with ease by the polling clerks. This afternoon and after 5 p.m. to-day the heaviest rush will be experienced, it is anticipated.

CLOSES AT 8 O'CLOCK

The polls will close promptly at 8 p.m., when counting will commence. The first returns are anticipated at 8.30 p.m., with a final count shortly after 9 o'clock. Not until the final count will the results of the voting be fully known, as irrespective of majorities both measures require the affirmation of six out of every ten voting polling to-day, to pass.

Last night Mayor J. C. Pendray and Alderman J. L. Mara spoke over the radio, taking opposite sides of the questions.

Alderman Mara said he was in favor of industries but could not support the measures. Mayor Pendray appealed to citizens to make some use of the $6,000,000 investment in ocean docks, which have lain comparatively idle at Ogden Point for fourteen years.

Interest in the by-laws was shown this morning by the numbers turning out, believed to be far in excess of the average poll. Two blind men were among the first to record their vote, performed through the returning officer and with the necessary declarations. Polling to-day affords two extra hours in which votes may be recorded, due to the amendment in the Municipal Act of 1925 when the hours from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. came into force.

PREMIER SILENT AFTER MEETING HIS COLLEAGUES

No Statement on Government's Future Until Liberal Caucus Monday

Ministers Back Here From Long Distances to Hear Chief's Plans

Members of the Provincial Cabinet met Premier Oliver in his office at the Parliament Buildings to-day to discuss the future of the Liberal Party in British Columbia, in view of Mr. Oliver's illness.

After a two-hour conference in private, Mr. Oliver sent word to newspapermen that he had no announcement to make as to his rumored retirement or any other developments.

TO MEET MEMBERS

The Cabinet adjourned its session just before 1 o'clock this afternoon to meet a full gathering of Liberal members of the Legislature here next Monday morning. After this general caucus, it is expected a definite statement as to the future of the Government and the Premier's own plans will be given out.

MINISTERS SILENT

All Ministers were silent on the outlook for the Cabinet to-day as they emerged from their conference with the Premier. They indicated that it was for Mr. Oliver to make any statement when he saw fit, intimating that no action had been taken by the executive pending Monday's meeting.

All members of the Government except Attorney-General Manson were present this morning. Besides Mr. Oliver the conference included Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Finance, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, Hon William Sloan, Minister of Mines, and Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture. Dr. Sutherland and Mr. Barrow came here to-day from the North after a brief tour, cut short by the Premier's call for a Cabinet meeting, while Mr. Sloan came down to Victoria from Horne Lake, where he has ben spending a vacation after his recent illness. Mr. Manson will reach the capital from the North on Monday.

Bertaud Prepares For Long Flight

New York, July 14.—Lloyd Bertaud announced to-day that his companion on his proposed non-stop aeroplane flight to Rome would be John D. Hill, a comrade of the night air mail service between New York and Cleveland.

Paris, July 14.—Andre Bivon, pilot of "Seeing Paris" aeroplanes, has been selected to take the place of Maurice Drouhin as pilot of the French machine which is being prepared for a transatlantic flight. Bivon says he hopes to be able to hop off for New York in three weeks.

FROM NOME TO SEATTLE BY KYAK IS VOYAGER'S PLAN

Nome, Alaska, July 14.—Nome-to-Seattle "hop" in a kyak, or Eskimo canoe, powered with an outboard motor, is planned by Fred W. Yenney, a business man of this city.

The perilous 2,500-mile voyage, never before attempted in a canoe, will be started in August, Yenney said to-day, in an attempt to establish a record for a long distance trip in a skin boat. If the voyage to Seattle is completed without mishap, he plans to continue to New York by the way of the Panama Canal. Yenney will probably take an Eskimo reindeer herder with him on the projected voyage.

From Nome he plans to cruise down Bering Sea and along the southern shore of the Aleutian Islands and Alaska Peninsula to Seward and thence to Seattle by way of the sheltered inside passage, much of which lies between Vancouver Island and the Mainland of British Columbia.

STATED WRECK OF NUNGESSER PLANE IS FOUND

Two Hunters Say They Discovered Fragments of Machine in Newfoundland

Major F. S. Cotton, Aviator, on Way to Investigate the Report

St. Johns, Nfd., July 14.—Wreckage believed to be that of the aeroplane "White Bird," flown by Nungesser and Coli from France in an attempt to reach New York, has been found in the interior of Newfoundland, two hunters reported to-day.

The two hunters, who live at Flat Bay, on the west coast, brought out the report that about forty miles inland in the wilderness they had sighted what looked like a large white boat. Railway officials at St. Georges, to whom they reported their find, believing this might be the fuselage of the transatlantic plane, immediately sent Track Superindentent Keefe with Major F. Sidney Cotton by special car to question the men further and to determine what actually had been seen.

TRAVEL IS SLOW

It is possible that with additional identification to be gained by questioning by one familiar with the design of the plane flown by the Frenchmen, as is Major Cotton, who has been engaged in a search for them, identification might be made, but it was said several days would be needed to penetrate to the spot in the forest where the hunters said they had seen the object.

MAIL ROBBERS IN QUEBEC GET AWAY WITH SUM OF MONEY

Take Thousands of Dollars Being Carried to Bank Branch at St. Ludger

Lake Megantic, Que., July 14.—A gang of robbers early this morning made a successful raid on a Canadian mail van at a point between St. Samuel and St. Ludger, escaping with several thousand dollars in cash, which was being conveyed to the branch of La Banque Canadienne Nationale at St. Ludger.

Between St. Samuel and St. Ludger the driver was suddenly ordered to pull up. Whether or not the driver was injured is not known. The robbers made off with several bags of mail, including the packages of cash consigned to La Banque Canadienne Nationale.

The stolen bags were later discovered along the road some distance from the holdup. They had been ripped open and the money extracted.

St. Ludger is in Beauce County, ten miles from the boundary between Quebec Province and Maine.

RELIEF MEASURES IN EARTHQUAKE ZONE

Reconstruction in Palestine Difficult Because Natural Resources Are Limited

London, July 14.—Various reports from the earthquake zone in the Holy Land differ widely as to the number of persons killed and injured last Monday. The latest tend to discount the large figures given in earlier dispatches from Cairo of more than 1,000 dead.

A Jerusalem report by Reuter's give the following figures:

At Amman, nine killed and thirty-five injured; at Es Salt, thirty-five killed and thirty-four seriously injured and in the remainder of Trans-Jordania twenty killed and thirty-two seriously injured.

REPORT 500 KILLED

The Haifa (Syria) correspondent of The London Daily Mail says that in Palestine and Trans-Jordania 500 persons were killed and that in Jerusalem and the surrounding districts more than 700 houses were damaged. The damage in Jerusalem is estimated at more than $500,000. Among the places damaged are the Greek convent and the Patriarchs' residence on the Mount of Olives.

News from the stricken area continues to be fragmentary and no reliable story is available.

MOSQUE WRECKED

A big casualty list is reported from Ramleh, apparently due to the collapse of a mosque full of worshippers. Details of this have not been received.

The poorest towns and villages suffered most, but the people are bearing their sufferings well and order has not

PLANE ON WAY FROM OAKLAND TO HONOLULU

Ernest L. Smith, Civilian Pilot, and E. B. Bronte, Navigator, Wing Way in Monoplane Over Pacific From United States Toward Hawaiian Islands; Start Made From the Field at San Francisco Bay Despite Unfavorable Weather Reports

San Francisco, July 14. — Radio stations about San Francisco picked up the following message at 1 p.m. to-day from the Smith-Bronte monoplane, bound on a non-stop flight from California to Honolulu:

"Position at 1 p.m.—Latitude 37; longitude 123.5 West. Going fine; beacon great. Will call later."

Municipal Airport, Oakland, Cal., July 14.—The silver-winged monoplane "City of Oakland," manned by Pilot Ernest L. Smith and Navigator Emery B. Bronte, took off here at 10.39 a.m. to-day for a 2,400-mile non-stop flight to Hawaii.

Smith, who is a civilian flier, and Bronte started their final preparations for the flight shortly after midnight when the weather charts showed the prospect of low clouds and fog for a considerable distance over the Pacific, with north and northwest winds—not at all favorable for a westward flight—prevalent from here to the half-way mark.

RETURN FLIGHT

Smith previously had announced plans for landing at Wheeler Field, near Honolulu, re-fueling, overhauling his plane and starting back for Oakland within two hours.

FLOODED YANGTSE REGION ASKS AID

1,000 Drowned and Tens of Thousands Made Homeless in Anwhei Province, China

Shanghai, July 14.—Urgent appeals for aid were received in Shanghai today from the southern part of Anwhei Province, the scene of a great flood disaster, on July 6, which caused the deaths of more than 1,000 persons. It was only yesterday that the first news of the overflowing of the lower reaches of the Yangtse River was received in Shanghai and the reports were still meagre to-day. Enough has been learned, however, to indicate tens of thousands of persons are homeless and destitute and that vast damage to property has been done.

CANADIANS AGAIN WIN AT BISLEY MEET

Marksmen Add Mackinnon Cup to Their Kolapore Cup Victory in England

Bisley Camp, July 14 (Canadian Press Cable)—Canada won the Mackinnon Challenge Cup to-day by nineteen points from teams representing England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and other parts of the Empire.

Coming two days after the Canadian victory in the great Kolapore Cup shoot, the win to-day again demonstrated the Canadians' efficiency in team shooting. In the Mackinnon contest the teams were twelve men each, Compared with eight men in the Kolapore Cup competition.

The Canadian marksmen led by two points after the shoot at 900 yards, and increased this by another seventeen points at the 1,000-yard range.

The Mackinnon Challenge Cup won to-day, was first offered by Colonel Mackinnon in 1891. The Canadians also will receive special commemorative souvenirs from the National Rifle Association.

ELKINGTON AWARD

Lieut. Desmond Burke, Ottawa, finished fourth with ninety-six, winning $20.

GIRL BANDIT IS CAUGHT IN BANK

Armed With Revolver, She Fails to Get Money in Saginaw, Michigan

Saginaw, Mich., July 14.—Blonde, bobbed haired and defiant, a nineteen-year-old girl is held here to-day following her unsuccessful attempt yesterday to get $5,000 from the paying teller at the People's Savings Bank.

Coolly pointing a decrepit revolver into the face of E. E. Speckhardt, teller of the bank, the girl pushed a $5,000 cheque signed "Make it snappy" through the window and airily commanded the teller to "Give me $5,000 and make it snappy."

Speckhardt dropped to his knees behind the counter and pressed the button of the complicated burglar alarm system. Within a few seconds a policeman, several hundred pedestrians flocking at his heels, rushed into the bank and disarmed the girl. She fell into the patrolman's arms and took refuge in tears.

The young woman gave her name as Viola Harris of Flint, Michigan.

"I needed the money to pay off a mortgage," she said, "and thought that would be an easy way to get it."

SUTHERLAND SEES ROAD IMPROVEMENT

Minister Back After Trip Inspecting Progress in Northern Interior

After inspecting road work carried on by his department in the northern and central interior of the Province, Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, returned here to-day to attend a meeting of the Cabinet. The Minister expressed himself as well satisfied with the progress made by departmental engineers in revising the road system of a large part of the Interior, where old settlers' roads are being rebuilt into modern motor highways.

"The department is working to a definite scheme in its Interior road programme," the Minister said. "Bit by bit we are eliminating bad places in the roads, locating them in new places and putting new surfaces on them to carry modern traffic, for which, in many districts, they were not originally built. The trip from Vancouver to Hazelton by automobile reveals an astonishing improvement in the roads during the last few years.

"At present extensive work is in progress on the old Cariboo Road itself and on the road from Prince Rupert westward, where extensive locations are being effected. During the next year or two the road will be pushed westward to Terrace and ultimately to Prince Rupert."

While in the North with Patrick Philip, Deputy Minister and Public Works engineer, Dr. Sutherland inspected the present bridge over the Bulkley River at Hazelton and considered plans for its renewal. He has not decided yet whether the new bridge should stand in the location of the present one or be moved to a lower level at a different point.

Crops in the North promise a heavy yield this year, owing to late rains, Dr. Sutherland reported.

CITY SERVICES TO PICNIC SATURDAY

Eighth Annual Outing to be Staged on Saturday at Beaver Lake

An attractive list of twenty-five sports events, and tombola, features have been prepared for the eighth annual outing of the inside and outside services of the city, to take place Saturday at Beaver Lake. Tallyhos will leave from the City Hall in the morning in relays, returning at 8.30 p.m.

President A. E. Fraser, A. Wyman, J. W. Hooper, W. J. Carter, W. E. Farmer, and A. McDonald are committee conveners looking after various phases of the plans. Excellent entertainment will be provided, with the following as assisting artists: Pipe Major Donald Cameron, Miss Madge Wallace, Miss Rhodes, Frank Merryfield. A Charleston contest with prizes is one of the features of the entertainment that is attracting interest. Much of the entertainment plans are being kept as a surprise for those who attend the gathering.

Mayor Pendray and members of the City Council have accepted invitations to be present. The City Hall will be closed all day Saturday, for the annual outing holiday granted to city services on this occasion.

WEALTHY HONEYMOON COUPLE TO HIDE FROM WORLD THREE MONTHS

may leave to-day or to-morrow, and then we shall disappear for three months."

When it was known they, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, were coming to British Columbia on their wedding trip, it was presumed that they would visit the secluded lodge on an island in Sproat Lake, where Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt made their home when they lived on Vancouver Island, but this they said was not their intention. "No, we shall disapear for three months, and nobody will know where," said the groom.

Whether General and Mrs. Vanderbilt, who refused to give their blessing to their daughter and son-in-law, have relented since Miss Vanderbilt penned a note to them after the civil ceremony from the apartment of her brother, Cornelius Vanderbilt, in New York, notifying them of her marriage and expressing her readiness to be remarried at a church ceremony is not known. No word came from the paternal home on Fifth Avenue, New York, before they left for their honeymoon to British Columbia.

"We have no opportunity of knowing," they said. "We have no mail or telegrams. We kept our plans to ourselves. Nobody knows where we are. We shall be at a point in a week where we can get mail, and then after that we shall be lost to the world for three months." Mr. Davis smilingly shook his head to all other questions regarding their movements. He is an amateur golfer of ability, but would not be led into a discussion on golf, fishing or hunting.

MAN OF HER CHOICE

Mr. Davis, who with his uncle, Colonel Henry Howell Armstead, his business associate, has extensive mining interests throughout Canada and the United States, is a graduate of Princeton, and is vice-president and general manager of the Armstead Mines. His charming, but unassuming bride, has been sought by noblemen of Europe and wealthy scions of United States families, according to reports from New York, but she was determined to marry the man of her choice, who proved to be the handsome young mining engineer whose name she has now taken. The engagement of the couple was reported, but not confirmed last May, and friends believed that it would be officially announced in August, and the wedding performed at the estate in Newport, where Miss Vanderbilt was presented to society nine years ago. Miss Vanderbilt has, however, frequently expressed her dislike for the pomp and publicity that would accompany her marriage.

"When we return to New York in three months," they said, "the wedding will be forgotten, and until then we are going away where we shall not be in touch with anyone who knows us." Mr. Davis mentioned that he knew British Columbia well, having an interest in many mining propositions all over the Province, and having spent a great part of his time here during four years in the West. Business, however, would not occupy his attention until he returned to New York, he added.

TAG DAY FOR POOR CHILDREN

A tag day will be held on Saturday, July 16, by the public health committee of the Local Council of Women to provide funds to cover operations performed upon children of poor families.

In the year 1925 the public health committee had brought to its attention the difficulty poor families have in paying for minor operations to children. Often necessary operations were put off indefinitely on account of the expense. A scheme was devised whereby an operating table in hospital should be available for the use of children up to the age of fifteen years for minor operations. This consists of use of operating table, anaesthetic and 24 hours in hospital if necessary. To procure funds for this purpose a tag day was held March 15, 1925, and was generously supported. In the first year ninety-one children received benefit at a cost of $682.50. For the purpose of carrying on this work a second tag day was held March 20, 1926.

Headquarters of the committee are at 1230 Government Street. Taggers, urgently wanted, are asked to phone Mrs. A. Booth, 6554L, convener of public health to the Local Council of Women; or Mrs. H. Crocker, 5946R, convener of tag day.

ARTILLERY MEN TO SHOOT AT BALLOONS

Fifth Regiment, C.G.A., and Other Units Under Canvas For Gunnery Tests

Anti-aircraft strafing of hydrogen balloons will be one of the features of artillery camp at Fort Macauley, where the Fifth Regiment are under canvas for the annual gunnery tests. The 11th Fortress Signal Company and an anti-aircraft section are in camp at the plains, with the 55th and 56th Batteries, Canadian Garrison Artillery, while the 5th Battery and the 12th Heavy Battery have left for Sarcee, where they will go through tests on the Alberta artillery range.

AT FULL STRENGTH

Lieut.-Col. J. C. Harris commands the Fifth, now at full strength and looking forward to one of the most successful camps of post-war years. The artillerymen will compete in firing tests next week for the Governor-General's trophy, won by Victoria artillery men on more than one occasion.

Next week, after the six-inch and twelve pounders have completed their tests the anti-aircraft section will fire. Hydrogen balloons will be inflated and released, to be peppered with "archie" by the new wing of the coast defence forces here.

In camp under Lieut.-Col. Harris are Major M. Kirkpatrick-Crockett, commanding the 55th Battery; Major J. B. Clearihue, M.C., in charge of the 56th Battery; Capt. H. M. S Bell, anti-aircraft section, and Lieut. Green of the 11th Fortress Signal Company. Major P. T. Stern is adjutant of the camp.

Major T. B. Monk took the 58th Battery to Sarcee, accompanied by Capt. Thompson and the 12th Heavy Battery.

The Fifth made camp on Tuesday, and will be two weeks under canvas.

BAGGAGE AND MAIL ON DANISH LINER DAMAGED BY FIRE

London, July 14.—A Lloyds dispatch from Cherbourg reports the Danish steamship Estonia with passengers from New York for Copenhagen has radiod that fire and water has damaged the mail and the baggage of some of the passengers.

Tillicums And Bays Tie For Leadership In Wednesday League

Defeat of Tillicums by Five C's Pull Them Down Peg in Cricket Race

With the downfall of the Tillicums yesterday and the continuation of the victorious march of the Hudson's Bay a tie has been created for the leadership in the Wednesday Cricket League. The Tillicums came a cropper at the hands of the Five C's, who lived up to their announced intention of fielding a winning team. The Five C's put on 128 runs, while the best the Tillicums could reply with was 58. In the other game the Bays hit hard for 158 runs for eight wickets. The Tracy-Verrall eleven could do no better than compile 51 runs.

The Tillicums and Bays will meet next Wednesday at Beacon Hill in the match which will decide the league leadership.

HANSEN MAKES 76

The Bays are going very well just now. Yesterday Hansen was good with both ball and bat. He took four wickets for twenty-four runs and carried his bat to 76, which was the best batting feat of the day. McIlmoyle, of the Bays, also had a good day with the ball, taking five wickets for 23.

Only one T.V. batsman reached double figures Donaldson making 14. Verrall bowled well and was credited with the hat trick.

The Five C's batted fairly consistently, with Thomson's 31 being the best effort. Thomson was also very effective with the ball, taking six wickets for 35 runs.

Heinekey did the best batting for the Tillicums. He had an even 20. Pendray took six wickets for 51 runs, and performed the hat trick.

The scores were:

HORSE RACING

Calgary, July 14—Spectators yesterday witnessed a bad spill during the second race, when Dolly Day, in bearing out, stumbled and piled up Cuernavaca and A. N. Akin. The three jockeys, Tommy O'Hara, McCray and Swift, fell in the midst of the thoroughbreds' flying feet and it is a miracle that they all escaped serious injury. A. N. Akin pulled up with a broken left front leg and had to be destroyed.

The results were:

First race—Purse $300; maiden two-year-old colts; four and one-half furlongs: 1, American Motor, $5.25, $2.70, $2.40; 2, Harry Ardo, $2.65, $2.50; 3, Dusty Miller, $3.40. Time, 1.00 3-5.

Second race—$400; three-year-olds and up; five furlongs: 1, Billy Watts, $169.80, $34, $11.80; 2, Some Baby, $4.30, $3.10; 3, Mayflower, $2.90. Time, 1.01 2-5.

Third race—$400; three-year-olds and up; six and one-half furlongs: 1, Vennie Sue, $11, $6.65, $4.40; 2, Lou Shank, $12.10, $6.05; 3, Yami, $4.40. Time, 1.27.

Fourth race—$400; three-year-olds and up; about five furlongs—1, Blennerhassett, $8.35, $4.60, $3.20; 2, Miss Frauline, $6.75, $4.55; 3, Crest, $5.40. Time, 1.00 3-5.

Fifth race—Purse $500; Calgary Handicap; three-year-olds and up; one and one-sixteenth miles: 1, Bob Spalding, $17.50, $7.65, $3.90; 2, Gatewood, $12.05, $5.50; 3, Foreman, $3.20. Time, 1.54 1-5.

Sixth race—$400; three-year-olds and up; six and one-half furlongs: 1, Gambling Tony, $8.50, $3.50, $2; 2, Pay Me, $3.55, $2.95; 3, Ethelat, $3.50. Time, 1.26.

Seventh race—$400; three-year-olds and up; one and one-sixteenth miles: 1, Jack Frost, $25.90, $8.30, $4.40; 2, Star Purse, $4.80, $3; 3, Gondolier, $2.75. Time, 1.55 1-5.

HAWAIIAN VOLCANO IS IN ERUPTION

Hilo, T.H., July 14.—The eruption of Mount Kilauea, which last Thursday began sending fountains of lava into the Hatemaumau pit, continues its pyrotechnic display.

Beneath the crusted surface of the 100-acre lake of molten rock the continued flow of lava is forcing itself upward from the submerged "fountains," creating long cracks in the hardened upper level which glow angrily at night.

BLAST KILLED MINE WORKER

Stewart, B.C., July 14.—After firing a line of shots yesterday, one of which they believed had misfired, Leonard Klemola and B. Perovich waited fifteen minutes, then went ot the face of the Riverside mine, near here, to ascertain what had occurred.

Just as they reached the face the deferred blast occurred, inflicting fatal injuries on Klemola, who died two hours later. Perovich sustained a deep cut in his throat and his chest is badly lacerated.

Klemola's father resides at Merritt, B.C.

been disturbed. Relief committees are operating in each district and the Near East relief had offered to help.

Reports are still coming of houses in some places collapsing.

Reconstruction of the ruined places will be difficult and costly, Palestine having few natural resources.

670 DEATHS REPORTED

New York, July 14.—Dispatches from Jerusalem to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency here say figures compiled up to the present show 670 persons were killed and 3,000 were wounded in the earthquake in Palestine and Trans-Jordania last Monday. The damage is estimated at $2,000,000.

The stricken areas are described as presenting scenes similar to those of a battlefield. Thousands of tents have been raised to care for Jerusalem and Tel-Aviv sufferers.

The Samaritan community of Nablus, where only two streets remain, has appealed to the Jews for help.

GLASGOW HONORS LIEUT.-GOVERNOR RANDOLPH BRUCE

The degrees of Doctors of Divinity and Doctors of Law were conferred. The woman who was honored, Miss Frances H. Melville, mistress of Queen Margaret College, Glasgow was the first woman graduate to receive the honorary LL.D. degree. At a previous ceremony she was the first woman to graduate in Divinity at a Scottish University.

CITATION

The Honorable Robert Randolph Bruce, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.

The Honorable Robert Randolph Bruce is an important personage in the administration of Canada, the territory over which he exercises jurisdiction being an immense one. A native of Elgin, educated at The Gymnasium, Old Aberdeen, he came to Glasgow University in the early eighties as a student of science. He graduated Bachelor of Science in engineering and during his curriculum gained the Lorimer bursary in mathematics. During part of this period, between 1883 and 1887, he was on the engineering staff of Denny Brothers of Dumbarton. He left for Canada in the latter year, and was engaged on the engineering staff of the Canadian Pacific Railway connected with the construction of a new rail line through the famous Crow's Nest Pass. Later he was the pioneer of the great irrigation scheme for fruit-growing in the Columbia Valley.

The Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia was cordially greeted as a Glasgow engineer graduate of forty years ago at a luncheon held after the ceremony at which the honorary graduates were guests of the University.

"British Columbia, the most English, as forty years ago it was the most remote, of Canadian provinces, sent back again to his college His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor," said the principal, Sir Donald McAllister Bart. "They greeted Dr. Bruce as His Majesty's representative overseas, but they greeted him also as a Glasgow engineering graduate of forty years ago, who acquired in their laboratories and at Denny's in Dumbarton the knowledge and skill that enabled him to guide the Canadian Pacific Railway through the Crow's Nest Pass, and to guide also the counsels of the British Columbian Legislature."

CANADIAN UNIVERSITIES

In responding the Lieutenant-Governor extended an invitation to Sir Donald and Lady MacAlister to visit the University of British Columbia, remarking that such a visit would have a wonderful effect in stimulating the cause of higher education in Canada. In Canada in recent years they had progressed not only commercially but educationally. A new spirit had arisen throughout the Dominion in the recognition of the great work that their Universities had been doing for the advancement not only of science but of commercial life. A man with a University education, instead of being looked upon as possessing a doubtful asset for commercial life, was now welcomed in almost any business. Young men with a University education were taking a leading part in business, and were to be found not only in the laboratory but in the manager's office. Industrialists were beginning to appreciate the advantage of a trained brain, and the result was that the Canadian universities were being crowded with eager young men who realized that the university was the door which would lead to success.

the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart at "Benvenuto" for a picnic tea. On Wednesday Mrs. Curtis Sampson will entertain the officers at tea at her home, "Molton Combe." The officers will also be entertained on Thursday by Mrs. L. A. Genge who will hold a reception at the Royal Victoria Yacht Club at Cadboro Bay.

PROMINENT VISITORS

Several women prominent with the guide life in the Dominion and also in England arrived with the party this afternoon to spend a week under canvas at the Mount Tolmie camp. Among them are Dame Alice Godman, G.B.E., and her two daughters; Miss Muriel Montgomery, general secretary of the Imperial Girl Guides; Miss Anne Shepherd, Blue Cord Diploma Guider of Yorkshire, England, and Miss Margaret Sutton, former assistant county commissioner of London. Miss Dorothy Ayre, who will represent New Zealand; Miss H. McEwan, secretary of Dominion Council of Girl Guides, and Mrs. Hunter Ogilvie and Miss Shiela Boyd, both members of the Dominion Council Miss Boyd is also acting as special secretary for the entire trip. Other prominent members of the party are Miss Elsa Riepert, general secretary for Canada, and Miss Betty Waters, press representative.

The party which arrived here to-day left Toronto on July 5 with Miss L. M. James as train commandant. Before leaving each division reported to the commandant and was allocated accommodation, in groups, the various provinces being kept together as far as possible. A large smoke-room of the special car was turned into a hospital ward and was conducted in charge of Dr. Edna Guest of Toronto, who gave up her Summer vacation to be of service to the train.

Practically all discipline was dispensed with during the trip across Canada, stated Mrs. Warren upon her arrival here to-day. The idea of the trip, she said, was to give the girls an opportunity to visit the beauty spots of Canada. She wished the trip to be a memorable one for the young womanhood of Canada, who were traveling with the party. Mrs. Warren stated that the work of the Girl Guides was progressing in the Dominion, Alberta being especially good work in the northern territory. All the other provinces are making splendid headway.

BRINGS MESSAGE

Miss Montgomery carries a special message from Princess Mary, Viscountess Lascelles, which she will read at the opening ceremonies of the celebration, also greetings from the chief guide of the world, Lady Baden-Powell, who expresses regret at being unable to attend the camp.

Miss Anne Shepherd, who accompanied Miss Montgomery from England, brought with her a famous flag, emblem of the Yorkshire district, which was flown at the first world camp in England in 1924. It has since gone to all camps, and will occupy a prominent position at the Victoria jubilee camp. It is of pale blue linen, hand embroidered with the "White Rose of York."

As for the immediate return flight, army officials at Honolulu declared the plan was not feasible because Wheeler Field, where the fliers proposed to land, is only 1,200 feet long, too short a distance to permit take-off with the load the plane must carry. Army experts believed his only chance to hop off on a return trip flight would be to take part of a load of gasoline at Wheeler Field, fly to the island of Kauai and use the field from which Richard L. Grace recently attempted to start for California.

FALSE START

Smith made one false start before his take-off to-day due to a rut in the runway which caused him to execute what is technically known as a "ground loop." The action consisted of a skid and a tail twist to the extreme right of the runway. Smith was forced to shut off his motor to avoid crashing into the massed line of spectators.

The plane was not damaged, and after being wheeled back to its starting point at the head of the runway, it was quickly examined by mechanics and pronounced sound.

The second take-off attempt was successful. Amidst the roar of the crowd the monoplane lifted from the runway and headed out over San Francisco.

CIRCLED OVER BAY

It was uncertain for a while whether the fliers were really on their way. Around and around overhead they circled, disappearing in the fog over San Francisco Bay, then reappearing, heading back toward the field. Even after Captain H. D. Royle flight manager, had announced Smith was merely gaining altitude, the crowd lingered at the field, believing he might return.

RETURN FLIGHT

When they left it was the fliers' ambition to be the first to make the 4,800-mile round trip flight between Oakland and Hawaii, Captain Royle declared after the start that the decision to fly homeward had been left to the discretion of Smith and Bronte.

"If they can find a good take-off place in Hawaii, they'll do it," he said.

PLANE CARRIES LIFE RAFT

On this flight Smith has more equipment than he intended to carry when he and Charles H. Carter of Los Angeles attempted to hop off for Honolulu recently in a race with Lieut. Lester J. Maitland and Lieut. Albert Hegenberger, the United States army fliers who have just returned after succeeding in their attempt. Smith and Carter were forced to give up the flight when a windshield of their plane broke.

Smith and Bronte carry a life raft similar to the one carried by Commander Byrd and which saved his crew in their forced landing off the French coast at the end of their flight over the Atlantic. "Bottled gas" will be used to inflate the raft if it is needed.

RADIO COMMUNICATION

The plane also is equipped with a 600-metre radio set for both transmission and receiving. The set enables the fliers to communicate with passing ships and by tuning in at 1,025 metres they will be able to catch the United States army radio beacon signals devised and built to guide Maitland and Hegenberger in their flight. The army plane's radio receiving set failed to work continuously during the Maitland-Hegenberger flight, but the signals proved of material aid.

Smith and Bronte, taking a lesson from the army's experience, mounted their radio receiving set on soft, resilient rubber, hoping the plane's vibration would not affect it.

The army has ordered the radio beacon system operated during Smith's flight, partly out of courtesy to the fliers and partly to test the system.

When it left here the Smith-Bronte plane carried 370 gallons of gasoline, five days' rations for two men, emergency stills to convert sea water into drinking water, signal pistols, rockets and other equipment for use in case the fliers should be forced down.

The plane had been given several tests, one a flight to Santa Monica, California, and several others around the bay region.

The plane, fully equipped, weighed 4,732 pounds. It has a Wright radial motor which develops 200 horsepower and which, in weight tests, pulled the monoplane off the runway at a speed of ninety-eight miles an hour. The plane has a cruising speed rated at 120 miles an hour, when he left here, and Smith expected to make that speed when he had lightened his gasoline load.

HON. ROBERT FORKE IS VISITING SWEDEN

Discusses Migration of Settlers to Farms in Canada

Stockholm, July 14.—Canada's growing interest in Swedish immigrants is shown by the arrival here of Hon. Robert Forke, Canadian Minister of Immigration, and an assistant for the purpose of conferring with Swedish officials on the best methods of selecting trained agricultural workers for the western provinces.

The Canadian railroads also have special agents and investigators at work in the Scandinavian countries this Summer. Their object is to find out how the right class of settlers can be selected here, and what aid they need in order to become successful farmers in Canada. The old method of letting people shift for themselves is now recognized as wasteful both from the point of view of the immigrants and the Canadian authorities.

MICHAEL J. HANEY DIED IN ONTARIO

Toronto, July 14.—Michael John Haney, president of the Port Credit Brick Company, former president of the Home Bank, which failed, and for years interested in various Canadian enterprises, died yesterday at Kingston.

He was born in Galway, Ireland, about seventy-three years ago. He came to Canada as a young man in 1873 and, after first working on a farm, entered the field of railway construction, in which he showed great aptitude and carried out with marked success a number of important undertakings in this line both in Canada and the United States.

Among the important railroad construction works with which Mr. Haney was identified was the Crow's Nest Pass Line, of which he was superintendent of construction.

C.N. TELEGRAPHERS IN ONTARIO ARE PLANNING STRIKE

Toronto, July 14.—A resolution was passed at a meeting of the Ontario district of the Electrical Communication Workers of Canada here last night stating that the "persistent refusal" of the management of the Canadian National Telegraphs to meet representatives of the union would result in the issuing of a strike call, the time and date of which would remain a secret until the call was sent out.

TWO CHILDREN DROWNED

Roseburg, Ore., July 14.—Dorothy Cook, ten years old, and her brother, Wallace, eight, were drowned in the Umpqua River here yesterday. They had been in wading and got beyond their depth.

Pacific Milk Kept Pure

A citizen of Vancouver who spent 20 years in the canning industry paid a recent visit to the Pacific Milk plants. He was impressed with the splendid sterilizing process. Everyone expects a place where milk is handled to be pure and sweet but when this fine condition is specially noticeable and receives mention it is perhaps worthy of publication.

SUMMER?

WHETHER THE SUN-SPOTS HAVE anything to do with it or not, the so-called sun-spot, long range, weather forecasters have been nearer correct in their predictions about the unusual Summer of this year, 1927, than the official and orthodox meteorologists, who have been so outspoken in their scorn of the sun-spot men.

That the outstanding features of the weather this Summer were rightly predicted as far back as two years ago, there are the forecasts, filed in this newspaper office two years ago, of Herbert Janvrin Browne, a highly trained scientist of Washington, D.C., whose business is forecasting weather for commercial institutions, but who is not connected with the Government Weather Bureau.

Conditions responsible for the late and cold season, the serious situation corn, wheat and other crops are faced with, the floods which have recently devastated parts of this and other continents, were all forecast two years ago. In fact, Mr. Browne at that time went so far as to say one element alone was lacking in the meteorological outlook to make 1927 in the Northern Hemisphere a real "summerless summer" like that of 1816,—a violent volcanic eruption such as Asama in 1783, Tomboro in 1815, or a series of lesser ones but sufficient to throw into the upper air a huge volume of vocanic dust, which would reduce the earth's temperature another 10 degrees.

Long-range weather forecasting is based on the theory that the oceans of the world by reason of their changing temperatures, make the weather variations of the world. The oceans, in turn, owe the variations of their superficial temperatures to the variations in the transmitted heat of the sun. A period of low sun heat is registered in the cooler water of the oceans several years later, and analogously with a period of high sun heat. From these alternations of the temperatures of the oceans—the land masses not absorbing and holding the sun's heat—proceed the changes in ocean currents, winds, cyclones, rains, droughts, hot waves and cold waves. The weather we are experiencing this year was determined by the solar radiation of several years ago, the best determined decline of solar energy having begun in January 1921.

In 1816 there were killing frosts every month in the whole region north of the Potomac. In parts of Quebec snow lay on the ground until the new snows of Winter came. Virtually no crops ripened that year in the northern states and Canada.

No such severe calamity is due this year because of the absence of volcanic dust in the higher atmosphere around the earth, Mr. Browne assures us. However, he does predict a continuation of the "summerless" weather that is being experienced in most parts of this continent, two or three days of fair and hopeful weather alternating with two or three days of unsatisfactory weather. Late crops will be endangered by an early Winter. On the other hand, crops, such as the berries here, which are usually hit by sustained hot spells, have a chance to flourish abnormally.

Mr. Browne and others who attempt long-range weather forecasting have been attacked by the official weather bureaus of various countries as unorthodox, impractical and visionary. From our experience with the weather so far this year, we would say that the unorthodox, impractical and visionary "have the edge."

UNCONVENTIONAL BIOGRAPHY

MR. LIAM O'FLAHERTY IS CLEARLY no respecter of persons, or at least of office, and the title of his book, "Life of Tim Healy," is significant of its character.

Timothy Michael Healy, K.C., Governor-General of the Irish Free State, commonly known to friend and foe alike as "Tim Healy," is not even the hero of his story. That dignity is reserved for Parnell. The old-fashioned reader who would have liked a conventional record of the rise to fame of the Bantry boy will be disappointed. The Victorian method has gone for ever. The aim of most writers now-a-days is the achievement of individual style; consistency may well be sacrificed to originality. Every word in his book, says the author, "must be taken with a grain of salt," although Mr. O'Flaherty has followed Mr. Healy's career step by step.

Of the amazing combination of qualities which go to the making of the Governor-General's granite personality, it is his wit, corrosive and diabolic at times, pleasant or impish at others, that especially marks him out from the rut of self-made men. There are many instances of this in Mr. O'Flaherty's book. We get a glimpse in a letter to Labouchere in 1886:

"You are," he writes, "very fickle and unstable people, while ours has the tenacity of seven hundred years to carry us through."

It is hard to understand the quarrels among the leading Nationalists which followed Parnell's dethronement. The author dwells on their squabbles in order to amuse his readers, and an Englishman, at least, is relieved from boredom by Mr. Healy's own lively part in them.

POPULARIZING THE APPLE

THE FRUIT-GROWING INTERESTS OF Canada are merely following sound business practice in their decision to raise and spend $40,000 a year for five years in advertising to make the Canadian apple better known in Canada.

Under the arrangement that has been made at Ottawa the fruit-growing provinces will be asked to put up half the amount, while the growers, wholesalers and jobbers will put up the other half.

Of the merits of the Canadian apple there is no doubt; it has been acclaimed in competition in all parts of the world. But the task is to bring it into the every-day consciousness of the average consumer. In Canada there is a rapidly-increasing consuming public, which, if brought within the apple-eating fold, would do away with the depression in the apple-producing districts.

What national advertising has done to create a market for various lines of manufactured goods it can do for the specialized products of our agricultural districts. California fruit-growers have already proved it.

LET RUSSIA DO IT

THE LONDON OBSERVER REMINDS the Western world that the best way to rid Russia of Communism is to leave the task to Russia.

Whether or not communism is speeding its own downfall by recourse to new horrors and merciless revenges, a greater issue is never to be forgotten, The Observer says. Behind Moscow there is always Russia, with its vast area and its population of over a hundred millions. The British Empire remains in relations with Russia whether those relations are diplomatically acknowledged or not. It is Russia that we have to remember and what Russia means to the world of the future. The communist regime is an episode in Russian history that will pass. Foreign hostility cannot affect it except in so far as it will prolong it.

THE ATMOSPHERE OF MARS

NEW PHOTOGRAPHS OF MARS, taken through the world's largest telescope, confirm the view put forward by Dr. W. H. Wright that Mars has an atmosphere over 100 miles deep. The series of pictures has now been analyzed, and the results are likely to provoke much discussion in astronomical circles.

Describing his experiment in the "Astrophysical Journal," Mr. F. E. Ross, the astronomer, says that the photographs were taken in ultra-violet, blue, yellow, red and infra-red light, filters cutting out those parts of the spectrum not desired. To the sixty-inch telescope at Mount Wilson he attached a special enlarging camera, and then exposed his plates through the five different rays. He also took a number of photographs in yellow and infra-red light by means of the camera attached to the 36-inch refractor instrument at the Lick Observatory.

One interesting feature disclosed by the experiment was that the mysterious surface markings on Mars, about which there has been so much speculation, appear only when the light of long wave lengths—yellow to the invisible infra-red—is used. An official at Greenwich Observatory states that this appears to confirm the tests made by Dr. Wright at Lick Observatory in 1924, when he took photographs of Mars through screens which transmitted only certain kinds of light. He found that the photos on plates exposed to blue light appeared much large than those used with infra-red rays, and expressed the view that the larger photo included the planet and its atmosphere, the other only the globe. When he calculated the difference it indicated that the depth of the Martian atmosphere was approximately 120 miles.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

DR. TOLMIE ON WRONG TRACK

From The Prince Rupert Daily News

Dr. Simon Fraser Tolmie, Conservative organizer for the Province of British Columbia and formerly Minister of Agriculture in the Dominion Government, tells the newspapers in the south that Central British Columbia has in the past been left to drift. Now what does the honorable gentleman propose. He proposes nothing. He knows or ought to know that the Provincial Government maintains a representative in the Bulkley Valley and another in the Nechaco who help place new settlers, gathers information and lead in all matters for the betterment of the farmers. The Government encouraged the growing of timothy seed and provided cleaners for the use of the farmers. They put in force the Land Settlement Act to induce settlement. They were successful in inducing the erection of an abattoir in Prince Rupert by P. Burns & Co. to handle the cattle raised by the farmers. The elevator was erected by the party which Dr. Tolmie criticizes and this has been the one greatest factor in the recent improvement in farming conditions.

While Dr. Tolmie was Minister of Agriculture in two successive Dominion Governments the need for an experimental farm in the central part of British Columbia was just as great as it is to-day but he did nothing to remedy the situation, yet he now comes out and suggests that the King Government should do what his government refused to do.

Dr. Tolmie is a fine man. We knew him personally but we do not like to see him misrepresent matters in the interior of the Province. Probably he is misunderstood. At any rate it does not add to his prestige as leader of a great party.

A THOUGHT

Be of good cheer; It is I; be not afraid.—Matthew xiv, 27.

Fear is implanted in us as a preservative from evil.—Dr. Johnson.

Do You Mean What You Say?

From the Greek word for city is derived our word "politics," which, in its original form, meant only the affairs of the city. Unlike most Aryans, except the Italians, the Greeks gathered in cities, and hence the city and its government were of paramount importance. From time to time the citizens gathered in mass meetings similar to our present political pow-wows to express their views on political affairs.

RUSH-BAGOT TREATY

Q. What was the Rush-Bagot Treaty?

A. The Rush-Bagot Treaty was so ccalled because it was executed by Charles Bagot, representing the British Government, and Rich Rush, the United States. President James Monroe signed it, and John Quincy Adams as the United States Secretary of State. It was dated April 28, 1818, and called for the limitation of armaments in the form of naval forces on the Great Lakes.

CONFEDERATION AND AFTER

Sixty Years of Progress

OUR INDIAN WARDS

While by the terms of Confederation the Federal Parliament was given complete control of "Indians and lands reserved for Indians," it may well be contended that the proclamation issued by King George the Third on the 7th day of October, 1763, contains the Magna Charta of the Canadian aborigines. This proclamation, made public shortly after the Hon. Sir William Johnson, Bart., then described as the "Northern District of North America; Colonel of the Six United Nations, their allies and descendants, etc.," among other important matters, related that great frauds and abuses had in the past been committed in the purchasing of lands of the Indians; and, in order "that the Indians may be convinced of our justice and determined resolution to remove all reasonable cause of discontent," it was declared that no private person should in future purchase any lands from the Indians except for His Majesty, and at a public meeting or assembly held for the purpose. Many decades have since rolled by but the present day method of acquiring Indian lands differ but slightly from the procedure set forth in this Royal document of 1763.

Contrary to general opinion the Canadian Indians are not decreasing in numbers. A slight increase is noticeable year by year. The Indian population as given in the 1926 Indian census is 104,894. These are located on 1,570 reserves throughout the Dominion, containing an area of almost 5,000,000 acres. The administration and control rests in the Department of Indian Affairs at Ottawa, and the relationship between the department and the Indians is that of guardian and ward. The following concise facts and figures indicate the importance of this wardship. Real and personal property is valued at $74,512,629, and the total income of the Indians for the fiscal year 1925-26 was $10,189,696. The capital of the Indian Trust Fund during the same year amounted to $12,418,460, an increase over the previous year of more than a quarter million dollars.

Due to the clearly defined policy of advancement followed by the department, the Indian of to-day differs but little from his white neighbor. In statute and in the finance there is broad and generous provision to assist in his progress and to protect his interests, but individual liberty is almost untouched. Living conditions are improving by means of suasion and appeals to reason by the local Indian Agents, and tuberculosis and smallpox, those dreaded foes of the Redman, are being successfuly combatted and contributing causes removed or remedied.

Educational facilities are modern and thorough, though under the control in all cases of the various religious denominations. Throughout the Dominion there are for Indian use exclusively seventy-four residential educational institutions with an enrolment of 6,327 pupils, and the cost of Indian education for the year 1925-26 was close to two-million dollars. Two hundred and fifty-four day schools and sixteen combined schools were in operation during the year.

In religion the great majority of the Indians to-day are Christians, only 6,000 retaining some form of aboriginal belief. The Christian element is given as 48,671 Roman Catholics, 23,557 Anglicans, 13,930 Methodists, 2,175 Presbyterians and 1,173 Baptists.

Originally fishermen and hunters, the Indians to-day follow varied occupations and in western Canada many have by department instructions and assistance developed into substantial farmers or raisers of livestock. In the three prairie provinces 2,500 are employed in agriculture and 106,007 acres of land are under cultivation. It is estimated that the Indians of these provinces own 26,000 head of cattle.

The Indian population of Ontario is the largest of any of the provinces, being 26,706. British Columbia comes second with 24,316, Quebec third with 13,191, while Manitoba has 11,673, Saskatchewan 10,271 and Alberta 8,990. Less than 4,000 live in the Maritime provinces.

There is no class of our population more patriotic or more loyal to British institutions than our Indian wards. This is proven by the fact that during the Great War 4,000 saw active service overseas, and many to-day sleep in Flanders fields.

ALCOHOL SUPPLIES

Washington, July 14.—Desire of United States prohibition enforcement officials to co-operate with businesses requiring industrial alcohol was pledged to-day to representatives of national trade organizations by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Lowman and Commissioner Doran.

The prohibition bureau, the official said, did not intend to take any step which would hamper industry in general and was now working out simplified regulations affecting the use of alcohol.

WITNESSES HEARD AT VANCOUVER INQUEST

Owner of Alexandra Apartment House, Scene of Fire, Among Those on Stand

Vancouver, July 14.—Several witnesses were heard yesterday afternoon at the inquest following the fire in the Royal Alexandra Apartment House here last Friday, which caused eight deaths.

OFFICIALS TESTIFY

The glass in the kitchenette windows leading to the front fire escapes of the apartment building was frosted and opaque, Deputy Provincial Fire Marshal A. A. Macdonald declared. The glass on the hall windows opening on the two light court fire escapes was art leaded and partially opaque, he said. He said that although there were red lights in the halls, there were no signs indicating which suite doors led to the front fire escapes. To reach the kitchenettes one had to pass through three rooms and two solid doors.

Both District Fire Chief J. E. Loftus, who answered the alarm, and Deputy Fire Marshal A. A. Macdonald testified the kitchenette windows reaching the fire escapes of the apartment building were over gas stoves or pantry shelves and that chains holding them were only thirteen inches long and practically impossible for a woman or child to break.

The elevator beam, on which pulleys were fixed, was probably of wood, Macdonald declared in reply to a question from the foreman of the jury. He said it had not been identified in the debris at the bottom of the elevator shaft.

PULL CHAINS ON LIGHTS

Describing the plain red light globes in the halls, Deputy Fire Marshal Macdonald said they were operated by pull chains, contrary to regulations, which provided for a master switch.

Dr. A. W. Hunter, giving medical evidence, testified the eight victims had died from burns, aggravated by asphixiation from smoke and gases.

OWNER HEARD

George F. Lightheart, owner of the apartment building, said the building had been commenced in September, 1910, and completed in November, 1911, and declared it was built of solid mill construction and under supervision of Building Inspectors Jarrett and McKenzie, both of whom were now dead.

Inspector Jarrett had only required two fire escapes, Mr. Lightheart declared, but he had put in two more for the protection of his tenants.

"Did you realize the highly explosive nature of the paint remover?" the witness was asked.

"Not until now," he replied.

The withess flatly contradicted certain statements of Deputy Fire Marshal A. A. Macdonald, the previous witness, regarding the necessity of warning lights or signs on doors of suites which connected with fire escapes. The front fire escapes were solely for the use of tenants of the suites they connected with and occupants of thirty-two suites out of the total of ninety-nine could enter fire escapes by their own suites, Mr. Lightheart stated.

DESCRIBES OTHER BUILDINGS

The witness declared he had always done everything Captain Tidy, inspecting for the fire department, asked him to do and more. He said his building was well provided with fire escapes, more so than most. He mentioned one Vancouver apartment house which he declared had seventy suites and only one fire escape, and another with eighty-five suites and only two fire escapes.

HENDERSON TESTIFIES

David Henderson, painter, who faces a charge of manslaughter as a result of the fire, also took the stand. After being warned he was not required to say anything, Henderson declared he would give evidence on his own behalf.

Henderson said he had been working with the paint remover and after giving the floor three coats with the material had been scraping the residue off with a broad knife. He was working over by the window in room 402, he declared, when suddenly he saw a flash of fire in the doorway. He attempted to put it out, he said, but soon saw this was useless and tuurned in a fire alarm.

He denied he had smoked in the room.

The inquest was adjourned until 10.30 a.m. to-day.

Alberta Man Killed Girl and Himself

Calgary, July 14.—Steve Korek, a farmer of the adjacent Strathmore district, first chloroformed and then twice shot his sweetheart, Hazel Riseon, and then shot himself in his automobile eleven miles east of Crossfield, Alta., last evening. The bodies were found in a sitting position in the car yesterday.

In a letter which he left Korek stated and she, in footnote, corroborated the statement, that they loved each other and despaired of being able to get married and so could not live any longer. A cheque for $500 was left to cover funeral and other expenses. Instructions were given in regard to the hall insurance and other matters pertaining to his estate. Both belonged to well-respected families.

Miss Riseon would have been 17 years old to-day.

Korek, although born in Poland, had been educated in Canada and was the president of the U.F.A. of his district.

BOY DROWNED IN RIVER

Winnipeg, July 14.—Falling off a pier while throwing stones into the Red River, W. Balser, five years old, was drowned here yesterday. A playmate, frightened at the disappearanc of his companion, went into hiding and did not tell the child's parents of the tragedy until after an all-day search. The body has not been recovered.

MARTIN FEATURE

Winnipeg, July 14.—Walter Martin, eighteen, of Regina, Saskatchewan, provided the feature of yesterday's draw in the Manitoba Tennis Association's tournament when he defeated Roy Weir, Chicago star, 8-6, 5-7, 6-4, in the singles.

FIFTY-FOUR PLAYERS IN FINAL 36-HOLES

Players With Scores of 155 or Better Remain in British Open Golf

St. Andrews, Scotland, July 14.—Fifty-four players will continue tomorrow at the final thirty-six holes for the British open golf championship. Bobby Jones, defending champion, led the field at the end of the first thirty-six holes with a score of 140. Under the plan of eliminating players fifteen or more strokes behind the leader, it was necessary to come within 155 to remain in the title hunt.

Ben Hodgson, practically unknown professional in the National competition, was in second place with 142, with Joe Kirkwood, of Albany, Ga., third with 144.

The best round in to-day's play was by G. Buckle, Edgbaston professional, who had 69 for a total score of 146.

Len Nettleford, Australian amateur champion, who was second with 71 yesterday, took 81 to-day for a total of 152. Archie Compston had 152, Percy Allis 147 and J. H. Taylor 154.

Other qualifying Britishers with scores under 155:

Curtis, Bournemouth, 76, total 149; Mark Seymour, St. Leonard's, 81; total 154; A. Hallam, of Chorlton, 75, total 154; Jack Smith, Wentworth, 73, total 154; T. Perkins, Castle, Bromwich, 78, total 154.

OBITUARY

Funeral service for Frederick Dahl, who died in this city on July 8, was held yesterday afternoon at the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home, Quadra and Broughton Streets. The following acted as pallbearers: John Anderson, Fred Johnson, John Falk and N. K. Nelson. Rev. Fred H. Theuer officiated. Interment was made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

There died at the Royal Jubilee Hospital yesterday afternoon Mrs. Wong Sing, of 1910 Blanshard Street, a resident of this city for many years. She was a native of China, aged thirty-six. She is survived by her husband and four children. Mrs. Wong Sing was highly respected by the Chinese of this city. The body is resting at the Thomson Funeral Home, 1625 Quadra Street, from where the funeral will take place on Sunday, July 24, at 1 o'clock. The remains will be laid to rest in the Chinese Cemetery.

The funeral of Lloyd Mutrie took place yesterday afternoon from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Services were conducted at St. John's by Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick. A large representation from the Victoria Rotary Club attended. The following acted as pallbearers: A. V. Clark, S. T. Drake, John Simpson, R. W. Mayhew, T. P. McConnell and E. Tomlin. Interment took place in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

The death occurred at the Jubilee Hospital on Tuesday of Marjorie Harvey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Harvey, of 1727 William Street, Vancouver. The body is at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, where a short service was held last evening at 7 o'clock, Rev. A. de B. Owens officiated. The body will be forwarded to Vancouver to-day for burial.

Commercial telephone communication between Vancouver Island and Okanagan points is now established, the B.C. Telephone Company announces. An amplifying device known as a "repeater" has been installed at Kamloops by the B.C. Telephone Company, making it possible to talk from the coast to points not previously reached. The new service includes points as far south as Penticton and as far north as Salmon Arm. Not only does the "repeater" at Kamloops make talking possible to the Okanagan, but it also allows coast telephone users to reach various points on Dominion Government lines radiating from Kamloops up the North Thompson River, over to Shuswap Lake, and down towards Merritt. Such communities as Vernon, Kelowna, Summerland, Enderby, Armstrong and Penticton are now in telephonic communication with the coast.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Saanich School Board last night accepted the resignation of Dr. R. L. Miller as schools medical officer, remarking upon the cordial relations which have been maintained during his three years of service.

Rev. T. J. McCrossan of Seattle has been requested by members of Victoria churches to teach an interdenominational Bible class every Friday night in the King's Hall, Yates Street. The Book to be taught will be the Gospel of St. John. At the first meeting Mr. McCrossan will prove the authenticity of this Gospel.

S. Berrow, 710 Kings Road, who was badly injured about the face Monday when employed by the McDonald Pile Driving Company driving piles at the Victoria Machinery Depot wharf, was operated upon at the Jubilee Hospital this morning. One jaw was badly crushed when he was hit by a moving pile. His condition is not serious.

The Saanich School Board last night renewed fire insurance policies on the Saanich schools aggregating $135,950. The policies are written on a special schedule covering all the schools, with specific limits of protection on each building and its contents. This method attains for Saanich an unusually low rate of $1.80 per $1,000 for a term of three years. The cost will be $2,448.

The Arion Club plans to hold its regular annual open-air concert on July 19, at 8 o'clock, in Stadacona Park. The proceeds of this musicale will go towards the building fund of the Y.W.C.A. Herbert Kent will conduct the choir and a choice programme of songs, with the audience participating in the opening number, "O Canada," has been selected.

At the inquest held this morning to inquire in the death of Charles Munslow who was found dead in his bed at his home, Constance Avenue, last Monday morning, a verdict of death from natural causes was returned. The jury sat at Sands Funeral Parlor. Chief of Police Acreman, of Esquimalt, told the circumstances of the finding of the body.

Contracts for supply of coal to Saanich schools was last night awarded J. Kingham & Company Limited by the Saanich School Board. The price quoted was $9.22 per ton lump double screened. Firewood contracts were awarded J. D. Gillie and J. Bull at $7 per cord, W. Bickford at $6.70 and $7 per cord, and A. Stephen at $7 and $7.50 per cord. The prices vary according to the school to be supplied.

The Saanich School Board last night passed a vote of thanks to the teachers for the splendid display staged by the Saanich children at the Willows pageant celebrating the Diamond Jubilee. Special mention was made of the skilful management of the children by Sergt.-Major Frost and Sergt. Ward. The co-operation of the transportation contractors in arranging free of charge for transportation of the children to and from the Willows for the rehearsal and the pageant, was also warmly appreciated by the board.

To fill the vacant principalship of Cloverdale School, the Saanich School Board last night decided to promote a member of the staff now employed. A large number of applications for the principalship from teachers not in the service of Saanich were before the board. Selection of an appointee was laid over until Wednesday, July 20. After applications from Wm. McMichael, principal of Cedar Hill; W. R. Jones, principal of Craigflower, and J. C. Routley, principal of McKenzie Avenue School, had been received and discussed.

In its current issue The Electragist, nationally known electrical trade journal, devotes four pages with illustrations to the electrical wiring exhibit of Sydney L. Wilson, city wiring inspector, at the Victoria Home Products Fair. Victoria is given the credit of leading the way in its municipal drive to promote intelligent and safe use of electrical home and factory equipment. The Electrical Retailer gave similar prominence to the display recently, saying the lead was one that would be widely followed throughout the continent.

In addition to the series of regular Sunday concerts at Beacon Hill Park, band music in city parks during the Summer will be increased by a series of three concerts to be given by the City Temple Band in August, under contract to the city. The band of the Victoria Fire Department, complimented for a series of voluntary concerts given in the mid-week period for several weeks, will continue its programme, the city parks committee is informed. On July 28 the firemen will play at Stadacona Park; August 10, Beacon Hill Park; August 24, North Ward Park, and September 7, Stadacona Park. These concerts will commence at 7.15 p.m. The Municipal Band will complete its series of ten Sunday concerts and will then be followed by three engagements for the City Temple Band.

The concern which was incorporated early in the year as the Capital City Building Society, with the object of continuing the work of a number of previous building societies which have operated in Victoria for many years, has now effected such changes in its rules as were called for by the Savings and Loan Associations Act, passed at the last session of the Legislature, and with the addition of the words savings and loan association to its title, is commencing active operations. The first drawing among the shareholders for the right to an instalment loan free of interest on first mortgage real estate security will take place in the Pemberton Building Friday evening immediately following a like fixture of the Greater Victoria Building Society, a similar orgainzation, founded eight years ago and whose directorate and membership overlap those of the new one to a considerable extent. The number of shares in the Capital City, which has been allotted so far, promises well for a career of usefulness in helping the man of moderate means to acquire clear title to his home.

"PUSSYFOOT" COMING

Vancouver, July 14.—"Pussyfoot" Johnson, famous prohibitionist, will visit Vancouver towards the end of August. He will speak in the First Baptist Church Sunday evening, August 28. In the afternoon of that day he will deliver an address in a local theatre, while he will preach at a city church Sunday morning. Rev. R. G. McIntyre states Mr. Johnson will visit Victoria on August 29, returning to Vancouver for meetings on August 30. Then he will speak in New Westminster on August 31, Kamloops on September 1 and probably Revelstoke on September 2.

TEACHERS ARE NATION BUILDERS AND STRIVE TO IMPROVE SYSTEMS

John Kyle, Director of Summer School, Says School Teachers Can Do Much to Safeguard Health of Children, Thus Rendering Great Service to the Nation; Many Courses of Study Open

With a staff of nearly fifty active instructors in various lines of primary, graded and high school work, the classes of the Provincial Summer School in the Victoria High School building are now down to the routine of labor.

The usual variety of subjects which the institution embraces in its curriculum holds much of vital interest for teachers, and they have come from all parts, some from as far away as Ontario, to acquaint themselves with the modern methods which the experts in charge of classes display.

Under the directorship of John Kyle, A.R.C.A., the Summer School proceeds. Working with him are professors and teachers from leading universities, men and women of high standing in their profession. There are instructors from New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Vancouver and other places, and all are eminent, mostly university trained.

"We have a real school this year," said Mr. Kyle to-day. He pointed out the practical processes of instruction carried out there. It was all founded upon the simplest theory, he asserted. The great idea in teaching children was to appeal to them through their keenest senses. Consequently, the teachers were taught how to "show," literally, rather than to be eternally "telling."

GUARDING OF HEALTH

Indicating one of the most important departments of study, Mr. Kyle spoke of the work done by Mrs. C. A. Lucas, who is ordinarily the superintendent of the Saanich Health Centre.

Her child health programme was a comprehensive one. The safeguarding of health was one of the greatest necessities in rearing a strong, virile race, Mr. Kyle said. It was in the school and in the home that children could be taught the proper means of caring for their own health, but, unfortunately, he declared, it was often a thing of which parents lost sight. They had other things to do. It was for the teachers to assume the duty and to preserve the health of the child. In this they could be of utmost serivce to the nation. This was the line of Mrs. Lucas's endeavors.

Under the same heading, on the health programme, folk dancing, physical exercises, playground games and aquatics take a place. They, too, are taught by experts and the classes are large. The entire course is laid out in such a way as to give systematic instruction on the co-related phases of the study.

USEFUL LEARNING

The Home Economic course is intended, according to the syllabus, to equip grade teachers to give instruction to public school children and includes the latest methods of presentation. The making of clothing and the subject of nutrition are contained under this heading. Miss Lillian Locke, A.M., of New York, gives a critical review of clothing as taught in elementary and high schools, and does lecture and laboratory work. She also instructs in clothing appreciation and economics.

The course in teaching methods and manual arts for elementary school teachers is attended by numerous students and is of immense benefit to those who enter it, according to Mr. Kyle. The nature and purpose of education, the contribution of pyschology to educational theory, the pyschology of the elementary school subjects and special method in elementary subjects are among those things dealt with by the instructors.

Nature study and elementary agriculture cover a large scope of work, and the classes are popular.

In the English literature and reading, Professor G. G. Sedgewick, B.A., Ph.D., and H. Nelson Shaw of Vancouver and Los Angeles respectively, do a great amount of work.

MUSIC TEACHING

Where F. Waddington, Victoria musical supervisor, and F. T. C. Wickett, taking a course of vocal music, preside over their respective classes, there is always interesting work being accomplished. The relative importance of music in the early life of the child is becoming recognized by educational authorities, and at the Summer School the services of the ablest teachers have been obtained. The work embraces a great variety of subject matter. Mr. Waddington teaches a class of music supervisors from all over British Columbia, in addition to many more teachers.

Under the heading of arts, there are three separate years of study courses. In these are included all sorts of painting, designing and drawing, from the very elementary to the higher types of artistry. Mr. Kyle himself teaches in the art appreciation classes.

Penmanship is given serious consideration by many of the students of the Summer school.

E. S. Farr, an able professor, teaches social science, and his classes are crowded.

Geography is taught by Dr. H. M. Leppard, of the University of Chicago. V. L. Denton has the history classes.

Manual training classes under competent supervision are also well attended, and metalwork, science and machine-shop practice are highly interesting, as is the pottery study. In this latter British Columbia clay is used entirely, and the products are excellent with generally an Indian "motif."

The elementary school of five divisions is conducted by capable teachers, and typical rural schools classes are in the hands of Miss Tertia Miller, the most highly recommended rural teacher of the whole province, who, despite her youth, is a very able mistress. Mr. Kyle paid her a high compliment when he spoke of her work.

The demonstration classes are interesting, and the work done there of great value. Teachers watch and study the methods employed by the instructor in charge.

In addition to the scholastic activities of the Summer school, recreation and social relations are not forgotten. Every Wednesday evening the Summer school students and teachers enjoy an informal dance in the gymnasium. The supervisor arranges for programmes of music and various other attractions in the auditorium by artists of repute. And always there is tennis and out-of-door fun for the students and special nominal rates at the Crystal Garden, where scores of the young teachers gather for swimming practice or instruction.

The student enrolment this year has passed the 300 mark, according to an unofficial count, and is well up to last year's standard. The children in the institution alone number about 250. The faculty swells the total of inmates of the place considerably, so that in all there are some 600 engaged in the work of preparation for years of teaching to come.

"We are able, with our methods, to give a teacher higher standards of efficiency, better system and organization methods, and thus improve the whole fabric of our provincial educational structure," says Mr. Kyle. "Our students do not study for university credits, but simply with a view to bettering themselves in their chosen vocation and to make their work more fruitful."

VICTORIA PARKS DELEGATES NAMED

Ald. Harvey, T. R. Purdey and John Baxter to Attend Convention

Victoria delegates to the International Association of Parks Commissioners of the Pacific Coast leave Sunday for Vancouver, where the three-day convention is to open on Monday. Ald. John Harvey, chairman of the city parks board, T. R. Purdey, parks commissioner, and John Baxter, secretary-treasurer of the association, will complete the delegation from Victoria.

The convention, to be attended by delegates from the three Western Canada Provinces and the Western States, will be held in the Pavilion at Stanley Park, where a fine programme has been drawn up for the occasion. On Wednesday, after closing sessions, the convention will break up, and then will follow the entertainment of visiting delegates by the Vancouver Parks Board.

DRAWINGS MADE FOR WESTERN TOURNAMENT

Prominent Golfers From Many Parts of Canada and U.S. to Play at Seattle

Seattle, July 14.—Drawings were made to-day for the qualifying round of the Western Amateur Golf Championship next Monday and Tuesday when 158 players will match their skill against the difficult Seattle Golf and Country Club course in an endeavor to win a place among the thirty-two finalists who will begin match play for the title Wednesday. The draw embraces players from California to Vancouver, and from the Pacific Coast to Toronto, with the field containing national amateur and open winners of almost every sectional championship at one time or another.

The drawings included: Don Carrick, Toronto, and Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland; Chick Evans, Chicago, and Bon Stein, Seattle; Rudy Wilhelm, Portland, P.N.A. champion, and Chuck Hunter, Tacoma; William Ederes and Jack Fraser, Vancouver; Franklin Dolp, Portland, present western champion, and Jack Neville, California; Forest Watson, Spokane and Charles Grace; Chandler Egan and Tom Green; Eddie Held and Roy Moe; John Dawson and H. A. Fleager; R. H. Bockenkamp and Lee Dtell.

Clark Appointed Northern Pacific Traffic Manager

St. Paul, Minn., July 14.—Roy W. Clark, who has been assistant to President Charles Donnelly of the Northern Pacific Railway, has been made general traffic manager of the road, it was announced to-day.

In his new position, which has just been created, Mr. Clark will have immediate charge of freight and passenger business under J. G. Woodworth, vice-president in charge of traffic.

Mr. Clark, who is one of the most widely known railroad executives in the northwest, has been with the Northern Pacific for twenty-five years.

RUTH ALEXANDER TO ARRIVE HERE EARLY TO-MORROW

Four hours behind schedule, the Pacific Steamship Company's coastwise steamship Ruth Alexander will arrive here at 7 o'clock to-morrow morning from San Francisco, according to word received to-day by W. M. Allan, local agent. The Ruth has ninety passengers for Victoria who will disembark between 6 and 7 o'clock to-morrow morning.

ROTARIANS STRESS INDUSTRIES NEED

Stunt Points Out Benefits of By-laws

Rotarians Regret Passing of Lloyd Mutrie

To-day's luncheon of the Rotary Club was featueed by a novel stunt organized by George I. Warren, to illustrate the progress of Victoria in the last ten years, and the possibilities of industrial expansion to be expected following a helpful attitude of the citizens toward new concerns.

A session of the Victoria City Council was presented, with the aldermen almost unanimously opposed to encouragement of factories and industries which would disturb the peace and beauty of their old age. The councillors were induced to give reluctant attention to industrial expansion, and aroused to enthusiasm by a summary of progress achieved, prospects of development and expansion of employment available to the people of the city.

Frank Sehl was mayor, the aldermen being Ivan Awde, J. Smith, Stewart Williams, H. Anscomb, G. Warren and H. B. Olson.

SUPPORT MAYOR

Herbert Kent appealed for support of the by-laws being voted upon today. He pointed out that many persons are "knocking" the measures and urged that Victorians show support of Mayor Pendray.

BOYS' CAMP

Dr. J. C. Foot appealed to the Rotarians to aid financially in providing twenty boys with a Summer holiday at the Beaver Lake Y.M.C.A. boys' camp.

VOTE OF SYMPATHY

The passing of Lloyd Mutrie was subject of a resolution of sympathy with his family, presented by Past President R. W. Mayhew, who spoke in moving terms of the loss suffered by the Rotary Club of a progressive member of long steanding. The resolution was adopted by a standing vote.

PRESENT ENSIGN

The club took advantage of the presence of Clifford Bell, a member of the Rotary Club of Raymond, Wash., to present a Canadian ensign to that club. It was explained that Mr. Bell had been delegated by his club during his visit to Canada to obtain a Canadian flag, to hang beside the United States colors at the weekly luncheons.

TO VISIT PORT ANGELES

The Rotary Club will visit Port Angeles Rotary Club next Wednesday, and will provide the programme at the luncheon.

MANY APARTMENTS OUTSIDE THE LAW

COURSE NOT DECLARED

J. B. Croly, foreman of the jury, asked Mr. Bird if he would order the demolition of the burned apartment or permit it to be reconstructed.

Mr. Bird demurred that this was rather a leading question on such short notice and the coroner suggested that the question should not be pressed. Mr. Croly agreed to drop the matter.

LADDERS TOO SHORT

Mr. Croly drew attention to the serious situation that had arisen during the fire in reaching the upper stories with the aerial ladders.

Mr. Bird said the question of reducing the height of apartments was one to which he had given consideration.

It developed during the building inspector's testimony that while plans were on file at the City Hall of the Royal Alexandra, no specifications had been found.

G. E. Lightheart, owner of the apartment, stated in evidence Wednesday that specifications had been filed with the plans before erection of the apartment building.

would mean a definite reduction in the offensive power of every type of warship because it would reduce their size. He reiterated Great Britain's reasons for her proposals as being based on the British need of a large number of cruisers for the protection of her food supply and overseas routes.

JELLICOE SPOKE

Before Mr. Bridgeman began his address, Admiral Earl Jellicoe, a member of the British delegation, presented a justification of the British cruiser needs, saying it was difficult to reduce them in view of the responsibility of the navy to Great Britain and the Dominions and the land combinations which must be protected. This necessity, he said, had been proved by the activity of German raiders during the World War, including the raids of the Emden.

"If we found 114 cruisers insufficient during the Great War, our lowest possible figure now is 70," he said.

ATTITUDE OF U.S.

Hugh Gibson, head of the United States delegation, insisted upon the necessity of a low tonnage in order to limit the burden of taxation and to prevent naval expansion.

Viscount Ishii, speaking for Japan, publicly proposed limiting the number of 10,000-ton cruisers to ten or fewer for the United States and Great Britain and even fewer for Japan.

Mr. Gibson, after voicing hope of an agreement at the conference, said the Japanese delegation had advised a procedure which was substantially in accord with the minimum cruiser levels submitted by the United States, but added that difficulties had arisen in finding a common ground between the low level proposed by the Japanese and the level which would be involved in fulfillment of the naval requirements advocated by Mr. Bridgeman.

NO CONFLICT

The United States spokesman said he was confident all his colleagues would repudiate with equal vehemence any sort of conflict between their respective countries and they should safely leave each free in finding the tonnage limitations to build in each class of warships as they saw fit.

Mr. Gibson denied the allegation that the 10,000-ton cruiser type "was forced upon a reluctant world" by United States insistence, asserting that type had been decided upon by a general agreement at Washington and that the United States had only begun its construction of them several years after other countries had started theirs.

Tokio, July 14.—Premier Tanaka, conferring with United States Ambassador MacVeagh here to-day, declared emphatically Japan intended to fight to the last ditch for a successful termination of the Three-power Naval Conference at Geneva.

The Premier requested that the United States Government be informed of Japan's most intense desire for an equitable agreement and expressed the hope the United States delegation would do everything possible to such an end.

TONNAGE PROBLEM

Premier Tanaka did not mention anything about the Geneva report that the Japanese delegation intended to withdraw from the conference if insistence on increased tonnage should be continued. Another high government official however, denied such instructions had been sent to Admiral Viscount Saito, head of the Japanese delegation.

It is generally believed, nevertheless, that Japan will never consent to any agreement which would lead to naval expansion, because such a policy is regarded as utterly impossible in the present economic situation of the empire. Consequently naval experts here and the vernacular newspapers are predicting Japan's withdrawal if a compromise should not be reached ultimately.

Steward on Board Dorothy Alexander Dies at Skagway

Juneau, Alaska, July 14.—Cliff Johnson, thirty-eight, steerage steward on the Ss. Dorothy Alexander, died suddenly aboard the steamer from heart trouble, Tuesday afternoon at Skagway. The vessel made a special trip arriving here at midnight with the body which was embalmed and shipped to Seattle on the Ss. Admiral Farragut yesterday.

Johnson was well known on Alaska routes. He was a resident of Port Angeles and a life member of the Elks Lodge of that city.

HOTEL LOBBY GOSSIP

Besides one of the world's wealthiest honeymoon couples, Henry Gassaway Davis 3rd, heir to large West Virginia estates, and the former Miss Grace Vanderbilt, only daughter of Brigadier-General and Mrs. Vanderbilt of Fifth Avenue, New York, there is a heavy registration of United States travelers at the Empress Hotel.

The visitors come from nearly every State in the Union. There are many from New York but the most represented State to-day is California. A party from Santa Monica includes Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Waddell, John H. Waddell, Florence Waddell, Helen Waddell and Miss Alles.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kaufmann with their two sons of San Francisco are here for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lowe and Master William Lowe are visitors from the same city. Another family of holidaymakers includes Mr. and Mrs. F. Sykes, Lawrence and Virginia Sykes who come from Crawford, New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Eccleston and Miss Sarah and Miss Margaret Eccleston are here from Los Angeles.

FROM MOOSEHEART

Several visitors from Mooseheart, the home of the great home which the Moose Order has built in Illinois to take care of the bereaved children of former members, are registered at the Strathcona. Mr. F. E. Diffendafer, who comes from that city on another trip West is accompanied by his wife. Also from the same city are Mrs. Exa Allen, Mrs. J. L. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller.

VISITING HOME TOWN

A former Victorian now of Oakland, who is visiting the home town is F. L. Jack Wolfenden who is making his headquarters at the Dominion Hotel. Mr. Wolfenden left the city to-day for a few days but will return early next week.

A party from California arrived yesterday consisting of G. E. East, Roy Harvey, J. H. Kuhlman, Miss R. Kuhlman and Mrs. B. L. May. Philadelphia and Alabama, Washington and Colorado are well represented in the number of tourists arriving in increasing numbers daily.

HEAT WAVE IN U.S. CAUSE OF DEATHS

New York, July 14. — Twenty persons in cities in the eastern part of the United States were killed by the heat in the last twenty-four hours, it was shown by compilations made here to-day.

Three others in New England towns were killed in electrical storms which brought only temporary relief to the heat blanketed section yesterday.

Although predictions were for slightly cooler weather to-day, forenoon temperatures gave little indication of relief.

In New York, where five persons had died since the heat wave appeared, the temperature at 10 o'clock was 80 and climbing, and the humidity was holding at 75.

Playful Cougar Ends Picnic Party In Stanley Park

Vancouver, July 14.—The cougar menace in Stanley Park has spread even to the famed Lovers' Lane, which runs up from the memorial at the Narrows.

Mrs. Charles Elshaw Chirp and Miss French were picnicking near the beach last evening. A bottle of milk disappeared from behind them while their attention was directed to an incoming boat. They started a search for the missing bottle. On the other side of a nearby log they found a cougar holding the bottle in his paws and lapping the milk out of it like a playful kitten.

At this point Mr. Chirp and his compagion cut short their evening picnic party.

NOON WEDDING AT CATHEDRAL

Miss Elizabeth A. Schofield, Bishop's Daughter, Becomes Bride of A. N. Robertson

At high noon to-day at Christ Church Cathedral the wedding of Elizabeth Allan (Betty), younger daughter of the Right Rev. Bishop C. D. Schofield and Mrs. Schofield, and Mr. Alexander Nairn Robertson, son of the late Mr. Arthur Robertson and of Mrs. Robertson, Victoria, took place quietly in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends of the families of the bride and groom.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, the Right Rev. Bishop C. D. Schofield.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Harold Wilson, the bride was unattended and wore a dainty French hand-made frock of ivory white crepe de Chine, with white hat to match and trimmed with French flowers. Her arm bouquet was composed of butterfly roses, blue delphiniums and maidenhair fern.

Following the service at the church, there was a luncheon at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop's Close, Vancouver Street, at which members of two families were the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left on the afternoon boat for the mainland for a trip into the Rocky Mountains, and on their return from the interior will make their home in Vancouver, where the groom is associated with the law firm of Pattullo & Tobin.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were the Misses Nairn and Mrs. Trees of Toronto, aunts of the groom.

Langford

Langford, July 14.—The Langford Schoolhouse was crowded with visitors from Victoria, Luxton, Colwood and local friends last night, when the music pupils of Mrs. Horace Simpson of Peatt's Lane gave their mid-summer recital, assisted by vocal soloists, students of Mrs. Mary McCoy Jameson of Victoria. The Rev. H. B. Allen was chairman.

The musical selections rendered were very pleasing, every one of the pupils acquitting themselves creditably. Out of the programme twelve pieces were played from memory, showing the earnest attention given to them by teacher and student.

Vocal solos were charmingly given by Miss Viola Johnstone, who sang "Pipe of June," giving as her encore, "Three."

Miss Ada Simpson rendered prettily "Sonny Boy" and "I've Something Sweet to Tell You," while Miss Rita Ormiston sang the well-known favorite "Passing By" and "To Sing Awhile," as well as proving herself a delightful accompanist.

Prizes and certificates for good work during the past year were presented by Mrs. H. B. Allen with a few gracious words to the following pupils: Jean Tinker, Margaret Tinker, Ruth Pearce, Frances Wale, Stella Hincks, Eileen Hincks and Jack Wilkinson.

John Scoular received a special prize for his good work under difficulties.

On behalf of her pupils little Mildred Peatt, being the youngest one, presented Mrs. Simpson with an ever-sharp pencil and a box of chocolates.

Mrs. Mary McCoy Hamilton of Victoria, who was absent through recent bereavement, was sent a lovely bouquet of mauve sweet peas in sympathy, while Mrs. H. B. Allen and Mrs. Ada Simpson also received floral tributes.

H. B. Allen at the conclusion of the programme heartily thanked Mrs. Simpson for the delightful evening and congratulated her on the excellent progress the students were making and the good work she was doing for the neighborhood.

Refreshments were then served to all the visitors under the supervision of Mrs. George Cooney and Mrs. Arthur Wale.

The programme was as follows:

Piano—"Witches' Dance" ....De Laney
John Scouler.

A pretty wedding took place on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groth, 2543 Cedar Hill Road, when a large assembly of friends met to witness the marriage by the Rev. Dr. Campbell, of Miss Mary Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. Harry Weber, to Mr. Anthony John Deloume, both of Victoria. The bride was very charming in a gown of soft shade of orchid trimmed with cream silk strappings, and hat of white embroidered silk. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses, sweet peas and maidenhair fern. Her sister, Miss Flossie Weber, was bridesmaid—very handsome in a frock of fawn crepe de Chine with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern. The bridegroom was accompanied as groomsman, by Mr. Reginald McKay. The reception rooms were artistically decorated with streamers of variegated colors, and flowers of great variety. In the centre of the drawing-room was suspended a large wedding-ball of roses, sweet peas, lilies of the valley, within which was a three-tier wedding cake. The presents were many and very beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Deloume left after a buffet supper by the midnight boat for Vancouver and the Sound cities, and on returning will make their home in this city.

Aldermen P. R. Brown, William Marchant and H. C. Holmes have been appointed by Mayor J. C. Pendray as the reception committee to make plans for the welcome to H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, who will arrive in this city in August. Plans for the entertainment of the royal visitor will be made as soon as the date of his arrival is known.

YOUR BABY and MINE
by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

BABIES MAY HAVE COURAGE BUT NOT STRENGTH ENOUGH TO WALK ALONE

When a person receives a leg injury and then tries to walk he uses a crutch because he knows by the feeling in his leg that without support he won't be able to step upon it. That is exactly the emotion a small baby experiences when he refuses to let go of his mother's hand and walk alone, even though he has passed the age when most babies are walking. He knows that he can't walk alone, and the mother says, "He walks all right as long as some one holds his hand, but he is afraid to step alone."

It isn't timidity or fear of falling that makes a baby refuse to walk alone, it is because instinctively he knows that his legs are not strong enough. Babies walk without urging, even without much encouragement when they have had the right food throughout their lives and their bones have developed the proper strength and rigidity. The baby who has rickets (and the big, heavy baby may have rickets as well as the thin under-nourished one) will not walk because his legs are not strong enough to bear his weight.

Any time between twelve and fourteen months the well, healthy baby will stagger off by himself. The falls he gets are no deterrent to him, they only serve to show him what was wrong with his balance, and so he adjusts himself differently and soon is flying all about as if he had never done anything else. This courage to walk does not have to be taught to a child by his parents, neither does he learn walking by imitation, because he creeps before he walks and he surely doesn't imitate his parents when creeping! Just as inveitable is his instinct for walking and the courage that must go with it.

If your baby is not walking when you think he should don't think that it is because he is timid . . . the reason is far deeper than that, and it behooves the mother not to encourage the child to forget his timidity, but to so alter his diet that his legs will inform him, in some subtle manner, that they are now ready and capable of doing their duty.

VANCOUVERITE HOPES TO FLY THE ATLANTIC

City Council Backs F. H. Turner as Entry in Ontario-London Event

Vancouver, July 14.—F. H. Turner is the official nominee of Vancouver for the London to London non-stop aeroplane flight, having been given the moral support of the City Council at a meeting of the finance committee yesterday afternoon.

The mayor and council in committee gave their endorsation to Mr. Turner's application to act as pilot in the first ocean flight organized in Canada on the recommendation of a special committee appointed to investigate the candidate's qualifications. Ald. E. W. Dean and Ald. J. A. Garbutt reported themselves as quite satisfied with the credentials submitted to them by the Canadian-born flier, who gave details of a creditable performance in the Great War.

SUPPORT VOICED

The council was unanimous in adopting the report and extending its moral support to Mr. Turner in his desire to bring British Columbia to the fore in aviation by endeavoring to secure the chance to pilot the first aeroplane from London Ontario, to London, England, under the auspices of Mayor J. M. Moore and Ray Lawson, Canadian trustees, and Mr. Grant of the London, England, Chamber of Commerce, British trustee of the flight.

Ald. Dean announced to the meeting that Major D. R. MacLaren, as president of the Vancouver branch of the Air Force Club of Canada, had stated his intention of giving all the support possible to Mr. Turner.

The city's candidate was born in St. John, N.B., but has made his home here for some time now, residing at 1298 Tenth Avenue West.

VEGETABLES DROP

The total vegetable crop amounted to 250,744 tons, or 277 tons less than in 1925. The acreage of potatoes shows an increase of 1906 acres, or 9.37 per cent. over the previous year. The yield, per acre, however, was 8.04 per cent. less, caused chiefly through drought during the Summer. Market vegetables show an increase in production of 3,219 tons.

Although the acreage planted to field tomatoes was considerably greater than the previous year, due to early frosts in September the crop was materially shortened. The crop amounted to 17,437 tons, which was 4,394 tons less than the 1925 tonnage.

There was an increase of sixty-four tons in the quantity of greenhouse tomatoes produced; the 1926 crop amounting to 984 tons, valued at $336,754.

A marked increase occurred in the yield of outdoor cucumbers. The 1926 crop amounted to 1,430 tons, valued at $74,775, as against a yield of 875 tons, valued at $40,941 in 1925.

INCREASE IN GRAINS

The total area sown to grains was 135,490 acres, an increase of 2,726 acres over the previous year. The production of all grains amounted to 5,018,412 bushels, valued at $4,453,939, an increase in quantity production of 361,093 bushels, or 7.75 per cent., and an increase in value of $202,618, or 4.76 per cent.

The price of wheat fell from $1.43 a bushel in 1925 to $1.36 a bushel in 1926; oats from 64 cents a bushel to 63 cents. Similar reductions are noted in the price of all grains.

LESS FODDER PRODUCED

The area planted to fodders was 1,015 acres less than the previous year. Fodder crops aggregating a total of 720,373 tons, valued at $10,457,459, were produced, as compared with 700,816 tons, valued at $11,629,132, in 1925.

Clover and timothy averaged 2.00 tons to the acre, as against 1.83 tons in 1925.

Prices were exceedingly low; clover and timothy averaging $16.40 and alfalfa $17.50, as against $18.90 and $19.85 in 1925.

DAIRY PRODUCTS UP

The dairying industry in British Columbia continues to make steady progress, the production for 1926 exceeding that of any previous year. The value of all dairy products was $11,627,300, compared with a production of $10,629,350 in 1925, indicating an increased value of $997,950, or 9.39 per cent.

The quantity of creamery butter produced amounted to $3,849,276 pounds, which was 367,574 pounds, or 10.55 per cent. above the 1925 figures. Dairy butter increased 275,200 pounds, or 13.43 per cent. during the year. Cheese produced amounted to 194,070 pounds, as against 434,257 pounds manufactured in 1925.

The quantity of fresh milk consumed was 15,775,000 gallons, this being 1,665,000 gallons more than the previous year.

Evaporated milk manufactured amounted to 172,762 cases, which was 37,842 cases less than in 1925.

The increase in the quantity of ice cream made during the year was pronounced. The 1926 production amounted to 542,597 gallons, valued at $825,124, as against 489,869 gallons, valued at $741,442 produced in 1925.

MORE LIVE STOCK

The value of all domestic animals is placed at $20,752,433, representing an increased value of $2,496,204 over the year 1925.

Horses increased in number from 57,016 in 1925 to 61,188 in 1926, the increase for the year being 4,142.

Dairy and beef cattle both showed an increase in numbers, there now being in the Province 338,244 cattle, an increase of 40,298 during the year.

Swine increased in number by 4,255, while sheep increased in number to the extent of 40,606, there now being in the Province 102,853, which is an increase of 65.23 per cent. for the year.

The numbers of poultry increased 15.15 per cent. during the year. There are now in the Province 2,784,361 domestic fowls.

Egg production for the year amounted to 9,956,375 dozen, this being an increase of 1,512,506 dozen, or 17.91 per cent.

The quantity of eggs exported during the year amounted to 1,132,620 dozen, this being an increase of 392,140 dozen, or 52.95 per cent.

Meats marketed during the year aggregated 42,489,711 pounds, valued at $2,410,461, as compared with the 1925 production of 34,117,300 pounds, valueed at $1,781,896. Prices on the whole ranged higher than during the previous year.

YOUNG WOMAN PLANS TO MAKE PACIFIC FLIGHT

Chicago, July 14.—Miss Mildred A. Doran who teaches school and flies, fluttered down from the skies here today, with equipment for a non-stop flight from San Francisco to Honolulu, to wit: an overnight bag, a handful of maps and a powder puff.

"And we'll make it, too," she said. "I'm not a bit afraid of it and I'm not worried about getting back for the Fall term of school, either."

Miss Doran, who is twenty-two, landed at Checkerboard Field in a special Buhl biplane equipped with a Wright Whirlwind motor and capable of 120 miles an hour. She was accompanied by her pilot, Auggy Pedlar, and William F. Malloska, who is backing Pedlar in the air race to Honolulu, which is scheduled to start from California August 11.

SLUSH FUND TRIAL HELD IN SPOKANE

Spokane, July 14. — Cancelled cheques, receipted bills and other traces of money which the Government claims was paid out of an underworld "slush fund" to elect Charles Hedger as city commissioner in return for an alleged promise of immunity to the liquor traffic were identified in federal court here late yesterday by Dr. John L. Newman, Hedger's campaign manager and the Government's star witness.

Newman declared on the stand that he got the money from bootleg leaders and paid it for advertising, handbills and a house-to-house canvass.

Backers of the liquor traffic, Newman said, demanded the right to say who would be placed on the police dry squad, in return for their campaign contributions.

BOMB ATTEMPT IN LOS ANGELES FAILED

Los Angeles, July 14.—A home-made bomb found in the hallway of a three-story apartment house here yesterday was given a test in a vacant lot by police and exploded with a force sufficient, the officers said, to have wrecked the building.

The package was addressed to Mrs. A. B. Chance, landlady of the apartment house. A skull and crossbones were drawn crudely upon it.

Police explosive experts said faulty construction undoubtedly caused the bomb to fail to explode.

July Clearance Sales

Three Main Reasons

Why Our July Sales This Year Are More Than Usually Important

1. Large Summer Stocks were purchased with an expectation of weather conditions being normal.

2. With unseasonable weather prevailing during the first period of the Summer season our stocks of Summer apparel and other seasonable merchandise are much heavier than they should be at this time of the year.

3. Because it is absolutely necessary that stocks should be considerably reduced before the end of the present month, prices on all classes of merchandise have been cut to the limit.

This is your opportunity to effect substantial savings, not only on your holiday needs but on things you will require later. Why not anticipate your requirements for the Fall and take advantage of the wonderful bargains now being offered.

JAPANESE SUIT TO INVOLVE THOUSANDS OF FISHERMEN HERE

Orientals' Action Freighted With Far-reaching Consequences

Success Would Return Them to Place of Domination in Fishing Industry

Thousands of fishermen on this Coast will be involved in the legal case about to be started by British Columbia Japanese in an effort to maintain their place in the fishing industry. If the Japanese are successful in their suit and secure the repeal of Dominion Government regulations, by which their licenses are reduced in number annually, they would be able to regain their old position of dominance in fishing operations, it is expected. For this reason the next move in the suit which they plan to take to the Imperial Privy Council will be watched by the fishing industry with keen interest.

JAPANESE LICENSES CUT

In the last few years Federal Government regulations have altered the whole character of the fishing industry, so far as races employed are concerned. Before the Government decided to eliminate Japanese from fishing by reducing the number of their licenses each year, more Japanese than whites were engaged in fishing on this Coast. Japanese represented slightly more than fifty per cent. of the fishing population, apart from Indians.

To-day Japanese represent only twenty per cent. of the fishing licensees. This has been accomplished by a reduction of fifteen per cent. a year in the number of licenses issued to Japanese.

IN SALMON FISHERIES

In 1926 licenses were issued to 6,173 whites in British Columbia; 3,350 Indians and 2,133 Japanese. It is in the lucrative salmon fisheries that the Japanese have felt the effect of the new regulations most. No licenses are issued to Japanese for the use of seines. One thousand and thirteen Japanese received licenses for salmon gill nets last year as against 2,177 whites, and 1222 Indians. At the same time only 162 Japanese received salmon trolling licenses as compared with 1,624 whites and 600 Indians. The new regulations have also reduced the number of Japanese in other branches of fishing but not so seriously.

SUBJECTS' RIGHTS

Briefs submitted by lawyers in the present suit between the Dominion Government and the Gosse-Millerd Packing Company are regarded as highly significant in their bearing on the case to be started by Japanese fishermen. Reduced to a word, the claim of the packers in fighting federal licenses is that any of the King's subjects has a right to catch fish in British Columbia waters, and that there can be no discrimination between fishermen. For this reason, it is stated, fishing licenses cannot be refused to Japanese if they are British subjects. This claim, of course, is apart altogether from Canada's obligations under its treaty agreements with Japan which, it is expected, will be raised.

Many Immigrants For Agriculture On Way to Canada

Montreal, July 14—Canadian Pacific Steamships arrivals this week-end include the Montrose at Quebec on Friday and the Melita and Empress of Scotland on Saturday to discharge more than 1,200 newcomers to be added to Canadian population. Practically the entire week-end's immigrants quota will be absorbed by agriculture or domestic service.

A party of fifty students recruited from various universities and agricultural colleges in the British Isles is coming to aid in the garnering of the Western Canadian harvest. These first arrivals will proceed direct to Toronto, where they will be placed by the Ontario Government on provincial farms for a month's work. At the end of this period they will travel west to be absorbed in harvest work in Saskatchewan through the agency of the British Immigration League. This party constitutes the vanguard of the student army to attack the Western Canadian wheat crop. Up to 3,000 students are expected.

Seattle Shipping

Seattle, July 14.—Five Japanese business men arrived here yesterday for a tour of the Pacific Coast, studying the lumber industry. They are members of the Tokio Foreign Lumber Importers' Association.

Two thousand tons of wheat, the first shipment of the grain to be exported from Seattle this year, will be loaded by the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Africa Maru, due July 18.

To take the post of examiner and investigator for district 14 headquarters for applications under the new longshoremen's and harbor workers' compensation act, C. F. O'Leary arrived here yesterday from Washington, D.C.

A shipment of seven crates of pedigreed varieties of pigeons consigned to the agricultural department of the Japanese Government, will be included in the outward cargo of the O.S.K. liner Arizona Maru, sailing to-day for the Orient.

J. C. Stillwater, freight traffic manager for the McCormack Steamship Company in San Francisco, arrived here yesterday on routine business.

San Francisco, July 14.—The freighter Oregon, formerly owned by the American Ship and Commerce Corporation, and known as the Monticello, has been purchased by the William Line, company officials announced yesterday, to be renamed the Willbaco, and used in the intercoastal service. The new vessel, together with the three steamers purchased a few months ago from the shipping board, will give the Williams Line a fleet of eight in the coast to coast trade. The Oregon is en route to this coast from the Atlantic side at present and will be turned over to her new owners as soon as she discharges her cargo of lumber. The Oregon has a new tonnage of 4,321.

F. W. Relyea, district director of the United States shipping board, with headquarters in Seattle, arrived here yesterday for a conference with R. T. John, district director of the San Francisco office. Relyea was formerly in charge of the local office of the shipping board.

BRITISH NEWSPAPER PARTY COMING HERE

Publishers and Editors From England to Make Tour of Dominion Next Month

One of the most important parties to visit Canada during the coming Summer will be a group of British newspaper publishers and editors who will be in this country next August with the intention of traveling right through to the Pacific Coast and back. It is expected they will stay one day in Victoria, August 27, with headquarters at the Empress Hotel.

There will be about 100 in the party and they will represent a large number of British provincial newspapers. The editors, many of whom will be accompanied by their wives, will arrive at Quebec on board the steamer Montrose on August 12, and on the 14th they will board a special Canadian Pacific train which will be their home for the ensuing five or six weeks.

ENTERTAINED AT OTTAWA

Arrangements have been made whereby they will be entertained by the Dominion Government at Ottawa and by the governments of each of the provinces they pass through, and the mayors of the cities where they stop, as well as many prominent citizens have already expressed their intention of doing all that can be done to make them welcome. It is felt that the visit of these British newspapermen is of great importance to Canada at this time. They will see the country at its best, and there should be publication of a vast amount of most desirable publicity for Canada. Mr. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific, has approved arrangements for entertainment of the party at various points across Canada.

TO SEE TORONTO EXHIBITION

From Quebec the party will go to St. John, N.B., arriving there on August 15. They will visit the Algonquin Hotel at St. Andrews, N.B., and will arrive at Montreal on the morning of the 27th. From there they will go to Ottawa, and on the way West will visit Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Kamloops, and arriving at Vancouver on August 25. After a visit to Victoria on August 27 the party will set out for the East, visiting Vernon, B.C., Lake Louise, Banff, Calgary, Regina, Fort William and arriving at Toronto on the morning of September 5, when the train will be parked at the exhibition ground, giving the visitors an opoprtunity to thoroughly inspect the exhibition. There will be a side trip to Niagara Falls, and the party will arrive at Montreal on Thursday, September 8, to go on board the Canadian Pacific steamer Montrose.

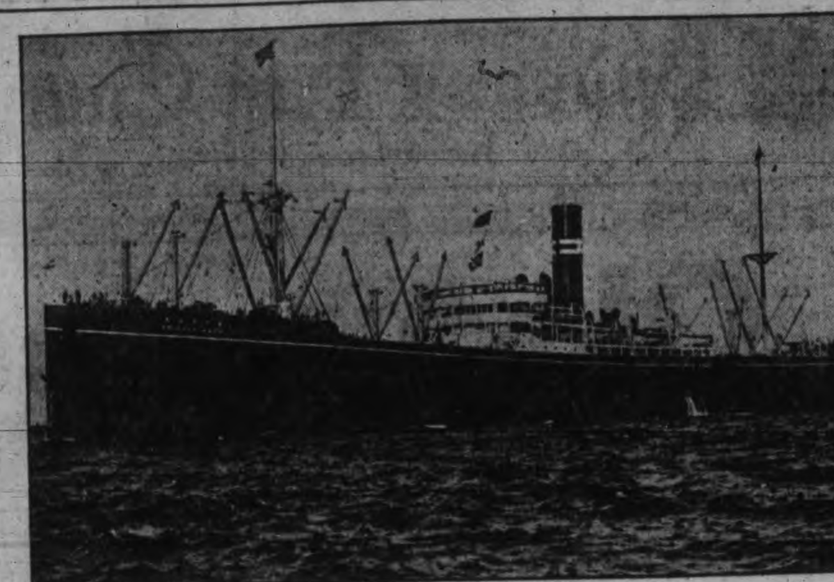
SAILS FOR ORIENT FROM HERE THIS EVENING



O.S.K. LINER ARIZONA MARU

TWO VESSELS NOW LOADING LUMBER

Two vessels are loading lumber today at Rithet Consolidated wharves, both being berthed on the inside of No. 2 pier. They are the Fukuyo Maru, loading for Japan and the Nyhaug, loading for Australia.

The Fukuyo Maru docked about 7 o'clock this morning from Port Alberni, where she has been taking on lumber. There are 800,000 feet of Japanese squares for the vessel here. The Nyhaug is to take 1,000,000 feet here, afterwards proceeding to Chemainus to complete with another 240,000 feet.

According to advices received yesterday by King Bros., local customs brokers, the freighter Vulcan City will be in Sunday morning to load 550,000 feet of lumber at Ogden Point docks. Other lumber vessels due here during the next two weeks are Ss. King Robert, July 20; Incemore, Euro and Neptunian.

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine freighter Canadian Winner will be here Saturday to take lumber for Eastern Canada.

ELIMINATION OF "JAP SQUARES" IS NOW LOOKED FOR

Seattle, July 14—Eleven Japanese, representatives of lumber importing firms which last year took 903,000,000 feet of Pacific Northwest lumber, arrived in Seattle yesterday to further relations with the mills which supply their timber.

An understanding whereby more of the lumber shipped to Japan will be manufactured in the Northwest into dimension stock instead of being shipped in "Jap squares" for manufacture in the Orient is considered a possible outcome of their conferences with the American lumbermen.

The visitors explained that Japanese houses are different from those in America and the long two-by-fours and two-by-sixes manufactured by mills in the Northwest are entirely unsuitable for use in the Orient.

CORVOUS AT CHEMAINUS

Chemainus, July 14.—The American freighter Corvous entered this port Tuesday night and is loading lumber at the V. L. and M. Company's mill.

The time used is Pacific standard for the 120 meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, measured from the average level of lower low water.

Esquimalt.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the drydock at any tide, add 18.9 feet to the height of high water as above given.

ARIZONA MARU TO SAIL THIS EVENING

O.S.K. Vessel Outbound For Orient; Africa Maru to Arrive Monday Evening

Calling here on her way to the Orient, the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Arizona Maru will arrive here this afternoon at 4 o'clock from Seattle. After taking on twelve steerage passengers and mail here she will leave about 5 o'clock direct for Yokohama.

An item of the Arizona's outward cargo, seven crates of pedigreed pigeons will hold interest upon arrival in Japan, as it is part of an effort by the Imperial Japanese Government to build up new sources of food supplies. The pigeons will be followed by a shipment of shorthorn cattle on July 25 aboard the Paris Maru. Hogs, chickens and other domestic animals have also been shipped recently. The pigeons are consigned to the agricultural department of the Japanese Government.

The inbound O.S.K. liner Africa Maru will arrive here from the Orient Monday evening, according to advices received from her captain by Rithet Consolidated, local agents. The Africa has several passengers for this port and a few cargo shipments.

When the Africa sails outward August 4 she will have the first wheat shipment made from Seattle to the Orient this year. Her cargo will include 2,000 tons of bulk grain.

NO CONTRACT GIVEN FOR MS. CHALLAMBA

Bids Received Tuesday But Successful Tenderer Not Yet Decided

Bids for repairs to the motorship Challamba, which was badly damaged when she went aground June 18 on Whitecliff Island near Prince Rupert, were received Tuesday by the owners of the vessel. No contract has been awarded yet, according to an announcement made this morning, and the matter is under advisement.

A representative of the Pacific Steamship Company, the owners, was in town to receive the bids and left for Seattle, taking them with him. An announcement is expected shortly as to the successful tenderers. Yarrows Limited and the Victoria Machinery Depot both entered bids.

The Challamba, since she was refloated from Esquimalt drydock after survey, is lying alongside the outfitting wharf at the dock, until the contract is let.

Montnairn Sails With Large List

Quebec, July 14.—Carrying the legal adviser to the Foreign Office in London, the Quebec delegate to the French Trades and Labor Congress, Canadian and American business men and social celebrities, a large party traveling to Europe under the auspices of the Artcraft Guild of Chicago and host of other passengers, the Canadian Pacific steamship Montnairn sailed from Quebec yesterday afternoon for Cherbourg, Southampton and Antwerp with an exceedingly heavy list of passengers.

Prominent among those on board was Sir Cecil J. K. Hearst, K.C.B., K.C.M., G.L.H., Hyde Park Gate, London, England, returning home after an extensixe tour of Canada and the United States. Sir Cecil, who has been legal adviser to the Foreign Office in London since 1918, stated just before sailing that he had greatly enjoyed his trip through the Dominion and the United States and was enchanted with the wonderful scenery which he hoped to see again before many years had passed.

Explosion Killed Towboat Engineer

Seattle, July 14.—George Gage of Everett, chief engineer, was killed and Captain Andrew Hagen, also of Everett, was seriously injured in an explosion and fire which destroyed the gas towboat Virginia, in the Lake Washington Canal here yesterday.

The vessel was on its way from Lake Union to Everett. The explosion is believed to have been caused by backfiring which ignited the gasoline tank.

Captain Hagen was blown through the top of the pilot house. Both men were thrown into the canal, where Gage sank before he could be reached.

Vancouver is to Have Unit of R.C.N.V.R.

Vancouver, July 14.—Notice of the establishment at Vancouver of a unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve, under command of Lieut. J. W. Hobbs, has been received at the city hall.

A letter from G. J. Desbarats, Deputy Minister of National Defence, states this unit is an integral part of the naval service of Canada and, as such, forms part of the defence forces of the crown.

CANADIAN FARMER IN

With general freight from California, the Canadian Government Merchant Marine freighter Canadian Farmer docked here at 10 o'clock last night. After discharging she cleared for Vancouver about midnight.

WEST COAST SERVICE

CONFERENCE HELD ON INTERSWITCHING

Officials of C.P.R. Meet Chamber Freight Committee

Interswitching of Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railway tracks to provide continuous carrying of Vancouver Island freight to the point of shipment, which has been urged by the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, was discussed at a conference of members of the transportation committee and C.P.R. officials yesterday.

Arguments for interswitching were presented to G. Stephen, general freight traffic manager of the C.P.R.; H. A. Plow, assistant general freight, western lines, and W. H. Gardiner, district freight agent, by C. P. W. Schwengers, president of the chamber, and other members of the committee. The officials of the railroad noted the arguments but no announcement was made.

$65,000 in Bonds For Men of Quadra Declared Forfeit

San Francisco, July 14.—The bonds of four men convicted of violating the prohibition laws in connection with the Quadra case here three years ago, totaling $65,000, were declared forfeited by Federal Judge Frank H. Kerrigan yesterday on the plea of United States Attorney George Hatfield.

The men, George Ford, George Harris, J. Evelyn and Charles Ballenger, were understood to be fugitives in Canada. They were sentenced to prison terms and fined heavily.

Vincent Quartaro, the fifth member of the party, was in San Francisco under sentence of two years in the penitentiary and facing a fine of $10,000. His bond was not affected by the court order.

BOBBY JONES RETAINS LEAD IN BRITISH GOLF

Hawkins, Canadian Marksman, Wins Prince of Wales Prize At Bisley

Bobby Again Under Par With a Good 72

With Total of 140 for Two Days' Play in British Open at St. Andrews Defending Champion Has Four-stroke Lead on Joe Kirkwood, Who Also Had a 72 To-day; C. H. Cotton, of England, Finishes Day With 145, and Hopes of Britons Revive at Thought That the Title May Return

St. Andrews, July 14.—Bobby Jones played his second round of the British open golf championship in 72, one stroke under par, giving him a total for the two days of 140, and maintained his lead in defence of the title he holds. He was a stroke over par for the first nine, but clipped two strokes off coming home.

British hopes in the championship were roused as young C. H. Cotton, of the Langtry Park Club, came in with a 72 for a total of 145 to lead the first dozen cards.

Tom Stevens, of Los Angeles, had a 73, which gave him a total of 149 for the two days' play.

Arthur Havers, the British star, who took 80 yesterday, turned in a 74 to-day, giving him a total of 154.

Reno Golias, the French player, took another 78, making 156 for his two days' medal play. P. Rogers, St. Anne's, Lancashire, scored 73, giving him 149 on the two days' play.

KIRKWOOD IS WELL UP

Joe Kirkwood, former Australian, now registered from Albany, Georgia, shot a fine 72, giving him a total of 144 for the two days.

"Wild Bill" Mehlhorn, of New York, was continually in trouble, and turned in an 80 for his round, giving him 157 for the two days' play.

Walter Kennett, Palmacia, Fla., scored 75 to-day, giving him a total of 153 for the two days' play.

Cyril Tolley, hard-hitting British amateur, played to-day in par 73, giving a score of 150.

John G. Anderson, Mamaroneck, N.Y., amateur, turned in 80 for a total of 163.

St. Andrews, July 14.—The weather, which has been rather dull, cleared to-day, and the sun shone brightly as the second round of the British open golf championship got under way.

AT END OF TRAIL

HARRY WILLS

Following his knockout last night in Brooklyn by Paolino, the Spanish woodchopper, Wills can hang up his gloves for he is through as an attraction. Wills for a long time knocked at the door of the heavyweight championship, but he never could get a match. Dempsey always said he would sooner fight Wills than anyone because he knew he could beat him easily. The fights which Wills has had with Sharkey and Paolino go to show that Wills was greatly overrated as a challenger.

RAINS MAY HALT DAVIS CUP GAMES AT TORONTO TO-DAY

Toronto, July 14—Prospects of the two singles matches scheduled being played in the first round of the Davis Cup between Canada and Cuba at the Toronto Tennis Club this afternoon are not very bright. Electrical storms throughout the night were followed early to-day by dull threatening weather with more showers promised by the weather man for later in the day.

However, should the skies clear shortly before starting time, the matches will be played. The first game brings together Jack Wright of Montreal, second ranking tennis player in Canada, and Dr. V. Banet, Cuba, former singles champion of Canada.

In the second game scheduled for this afternoon Willard Crocker who held the singles title for Canada in 1925, will face the Cubans' strongest man, R. Paris. They are veterans of previous Davis Cup engagements.

Eagles Will Meet Travelers To-night Important Game

Roy Baker and Art Webster Opposing Chuckers; Both Teams Need a Victory

With Roy Baker and Art Webster as the opposing pitchers the Travelers and Eagles will hook up to-night at the Royal Athletic Park in a senior amateur ball game. The teams will get into action at 6.15 o'clock.

In the future the senior league will use the double umpire system as the result of a decision reached at a meeting of the league executive held last night. If arrangements can be made two umpires will be used in to-night's fixture.

Both teams need a victory badly to-night in order to keep in the running with the fast stepping Sons of Canada, who are now leading the league. A win for either club will put them on even terms with the Natives.

This will be Baker's first appearance on the mound for the Eagles in a league fixture. He has played ball in Victoria for many years, and has always proved himself a good hurler.

Webster has worked on the mound several times this season, and will try to hold the Eagles in check.

ELIZABETH MISSING

New York, July 14.—Miss Elizabeth Ryan, the veteran California tennis player and number two on the American women's ranking list, will not be available for the team that will defend the Wightman Cup against the British women players in August at Forest Hills. Her withdrawal is due to personal affairs which will keep her abroad all Summer.

PITCHING AND NOT LIVELY BALL HELD GUILTY OF HITTING

New York, July 14.—Sentiment apparently was opposed to making any change in the so-called lively ball as National League club-owners met yesterday at the offices of President John A. Heydler in their regular mid-summer session.

It was felt generally that pitching rather than the ball's resiliency was responsible for the modern prevalency of extra base hits.

William L. Veeck, president of the Chicago club, pointed out that with good pitching by both teams, the Cubs and Pirates together scored but eight runs in three games in a recent series, indicating that the ball is not altogether to blame.

The meeting also was to consider the wisdom of engaging expert schedule makers from outside the league in an effort to eliminate schedule difficulties.

Ridley College Win Again in Edmonton

Edmonton, July 14. — The touring Ridley College cricketers made to two straight over Edmonton teams here Tuesday when they won by 104 to 85, and incidentally maintained their unbeaten record since leaving the East.

Batting first, the Collegians started poorly, but met with better success later on, and a fine partnership between McAvity and Hearne, who had 32 and 33, respectively, stood out in their innings.

The total of 104 did not seem very impressive, but it was more than the Edmonton team could muster. Mercer bowled in deadly fashion for the easterners, and had the very fine analysis of 8 for 21.

BACK IN FAVOR

PAOLINO UZCUDUN

When Paolino flattened Harry Wills last night he restored himself to favor in the heavyweight race. Paolino was brought over from Spain to do another Firpo act. He started out well, being regarded as the strongest man in the ring and able to stand all kinds of punishment. He won several fights but was crowded out of the heavyweight elimination tournament staged by Rickard. It was originally intended that Paolino should fight Dempsey. Following his win over Wills, which was much more impressive than the victory of Jack Sharkey over the negro, Paolino will no doubt be in demand for bouts in the future.

Sharkey Drops Four Pounds In Workout In Heat Yesterday

Rugged Boston Battler Eases Down in His Training; Cutting Down His Work

Dempsey Shows More Flashes of His Old-time Ferocity; Flattens an Indian

New York, July 14.—With only a week to go Jack Sharkey is just about down to fighting weight for his fifteen-round elimination contest against Jack Dempsey. Under a boiling sun Sharkey yesterday worked four pounds off in a short sparring session, some rope jumping and shadow boxing.

Because of the fear of getting "too fine," the former sailor abandoned his usual road work.

Sharkey plans to enter the ring against Dempsey weighing 196 pounds. From now on Sharkey's workouts will be lighter. Sparring will be cut short, but the morning roadwork probably will continue right up to the day before the battle.

Tamed by Buckley's "take it easy," Jack Sharkey, gave his sparring mates an easier afternoon of it yesterday, and for the first time in three days, Johnny Urban, the Pittsburgh youngster, was able to walk straight going out of the ring. Sharkey boxed two rounds with Urban, one with the Mohawk Indian, Leo Gans, and the usual light comedy round with the clumsy Rocky Stone.

The hottest sun of the year persuaded Sharkey to omit his usual four miles of road work in Central Park. The afternoon heat brought an irritated scowl to Sharkey's fighting face and covered his bronzed shoulders with a sheen of perspiration. Another large throng of fans watched the workouts in Sharkey's left quarters, on the fringe of a white-hot Broadway.

Saratoga, N.Y., July 14.—Flashes of old-time tiger ferocity, reminding one of the days of Toledo and Boyle's Thirty Acres, indicate that Jack Dempsey is well advanced on the road that

Required a Birdie On Extra Hole to Defeat Close Rival

Groton, Conn., July 14.—It took a birdie three on an extra hole for Miss Maureen Orcutt of White Beeches, N.J., to conquer Mrs. John W. Taylor of Chicago in the first round of the championship flight in the annual women's invitation tournament at the Shene Cossetu Country Club Tuesday.

With Mrs. Taylor out of the way, Miss Orcutt appeared certain to go through to the finals which will be played Friday.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of the Philadelphia Club was favored by many as the other probable finalist. She defeated Miss Dorothy Dow, Old Country Club, 5 and 4.

BALL PLAYER KILLED

Macon, Ga., July 14.—Pete Mann, third baseman of the Macon baseball team of the South Atlantic Association, was killed yesterday afternoon when he was struck over the heart by a pitched ball in a game with Ashville. Farrell was pitching.

Remarkable Shooting Of Canucks Continues

Hawkins, Former King's Prize Winner From Toronto, Scores 99 Out of Possible 100 in Main Shoot To-day at Bisley; Canadian Cadets Ruled as "Members of His Majesty's Forces" and Their Scores in King's Prize Will Be Accepted; One Cadet Is Well Up

Bisley Camp, July 14 (Canadian Press Cable).—Company Sergeant-major W. A. Hawkins, of Toronto, won the Prince of Wales' Prize to-day in competition with hundreds of marksmen from all over the Empire.

His score of 99 out of a possible 100 was the highest recorded in the shoot, which was with service rifles at 300 and 600 yards. He wins the prize of $500 and the National Rifle Association's gold badge.

Hawkins won the King's Prize in 1913.

Hawkins scored 49 out of 50 in the first distance, 300 yards, and a possible 50 at the second distance, 600 yards.

Lieut. K. R. MacGregor, of Ottawa, was the only other Canadian shooting a possible, getting this in the first distance. He scored only 45 in the second for a total of 95.

Lieut. Desmond Burke, Ottawa, had 48 and 48 for a 96, as also did Lieut. J. McAvity, St. John. C.Q.M.S. Parnell, Verdun, had 47 at the first distance, with 48 at 600 yards for a 95.

Sgt. G. M. Emslie, Toronto, and Sgt. J. H. Gray, Toronto, each shot a 48 and a 47 for a total of 95.

Scores at 300, 600 yards and total follow:

Pte. R. Potter, Hamilton, 45, 49—94.
Lieut. Alex Martin, formerly of Calgary, 47, 47—94.
Sgt. A. J. McCabe, Charlottetown, 45, 48—93.
Sgt. B. W. Beaumont, Vancouver, 46, 46—92.
Sgt. I. C. Bunnell, Sussex, N.B., 47, 45—92.
Corpl. J. S. Douglas, Montreal, 46, 45—91.
Q.M.S. Wood, Victoria, 46, 45—91.
Pte. J. Houlden, Hamilton, 46, 42—88.
Lieut. J. E. Foreman, Hamilton, 43, 44—87.
Sgt. A. S. Emery, St. John, 45, 42—87.
Pte. S. F. Glass, Lennoxville, Que., 43, 39—92.
Corpl. E. G. Stock, Toronto, 34, 44—78.

Bisley Camp, July 14 (Canadian Press Cable)—Canadian cadets are "members of His Majesty's forces," and thus eligible to shoot for the King's Prize, classic of the N.R.A. meet here. The eligibility of the Hamilton cadets was definitely supported by the secretary of the National Rifle Assocation in a statement to the Canadian Press to-day. Some doubt had been expressed in Canada.

In the first stage yesterday Cadet Hilson of Hamilton tied with six others for leadership among the thousand marksmen from all parts of the Empire. Hilson's shooting made a great impression here.

The six marksmen with whom Hilson tied in the first stage were: Sergt. Rees, formerly of the artillery; Corp. Cross Somersetshire; Armourer McCallum, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders; Corp. Grenfell of Cambridge University; Lieut. Wood of the Yorkshires, and Lieut. Booth, Royal Air Force.

Seventeen Canadians who scored 97 out of 105 to-day will shoot off with 86 other marksmen for 18 places left in the second stage, which is limited to 300 marksmen who made the best scores yesterday.

Leading scores in the first stage of the King's Prize, seven shots each distance, highest possible 105, by the qualifying Canadians were:

	200	500	600	Tl.
Sgt. J. H. Gray, Toronto	35	34	34	—103
Q.M.S. Wood, Victoria	35	35	32	—102
Lt. J. E. Foreman, Hamilton	34	35	32	—101
Lt. D. Burke, Ottawa	33	34	33	—100
Corp. J. S. Douglas, Montreal	32	33	35	—100
Sgt. G. Emslie, Toronto	32	35	33	—100
C.S.C. W. A. Hawkins, Toronto	32	34	34	—100

Bisley Camp, July 14 (Canadian Press Cable)—Canada was leading England by two points at the halfway mark in the shoot for the Mackinnon Challenge Cup at Bisley to-day. Scores at the 900-yard distance were: Canada, 551; England, 549; Scotland, 534; Ireland, 528; India, 522; Guernsey, 480; Wales, 460.

The second and last distance is is 1,000 yards, to be shot early this evening.

Teams of twelve are competing.

More Entries Filed For Canadian Tennis

Vancouver, July 14.—Harry Leech and Pat Lester of the Palomar Tennis Club, Calif., are the latest outside entrants to the Canadian championships to be played here the week of July 25. Leech has already arrived and will have nearly a fortnight's workout.

Arrangements are being made whereby leading eastern Canadians will appear in exhibition matches in the leading western cities en route East. Jack Wright and E. H. Framboise of Montreal, Gilbert Nuns and Leroy Rennie will be available.

Man Thirty Hours In Water Fails To Win Second Money

Erickson, New York, Five Miles From Finish When Taken From Lake George

Lake George, N.Y., July 14.—Edward F. Keating, twenty-four-year-old swimming instructor for the New York City Board of Education, was the only one of a field of approximately 100 distance swimmers who completed the twenty-four-mile course of the Lake George marathon. The swim, which began a few minutes before 10 o'clock on Tuesday was ended by Keating at 4.32 a.m. yesterday. A cash prize of $5,000 rewarded his strength, endurance and ability to withstand the waters of Lake George.

There was no second. William A. Erickson of New York stuck to his paddles until 3.05 p.m. yesterday, when he was taken exhausted from the water about five miles above the finish line, after more than thirty hours in the water. When brought to this village on a speed boat he was blue and numb with cold. His first words on being taken into the boat were an expression of regret that he had failed to win the second prize of $1,500.

CANADIANS DO WELL

Meyer Mendelsohn, the Montreal youth, who held fourth place for a good part of the swim, gave up the struggle when about three-quarters of the distance had been covered.

Tommy Walker of Toronto, who started well and was in second place for a time, could not stand the grind, and was removed from the water quite early in the race.

Ethel Hertle of New York attained the honor of covering the greatest distance of any of the women swimmers. When she gave up the struggle, shortly after 11 p.m., Tuesday, she was about nine miles from the finish and in third place. Mrs. Lottie Schoemmel set the endurance record for the women entrants. She was taken from the water at 3.40 a.m. yesterday, twelve and a half miles from the goal.

Toronto, July 14.—The splendid feat of Edward F. Keating of New York in winning the Lake George swim marathon has placed him in the front rank of entrants for the Lake Ontario marathon to be held here in August in the opinion of local swimming experts, including George Young, Catalina Channel champion, and Henry S. Byrne, his trainer. The result of the Lake George swim makes Keating equal favorite with Young to capture first money in the $50,000 marathon to be held here.

P.N.W. Tacoma Tennis

Tacoma, July 14—Quarter finals in the men's singles of the Pacific Northwest tennis tournament were reached yesterday with five Californians and three Tacomans remaining in the lists.

Results of matches in which visiting players took part included: Men's singles—Harrison, San Francisco, defeated Culley, Santa Barbara, 6-0, 6-3; Betz, Tacoma, defeated Johnson, Tacoma, 6-2, 6-1; McDonald, Tacoma, defeated Wallace Scott, Tacoma, by default; Betz, Tacoma, defeated Al. Hoggs, Berkeley, 6-2, 6-8, 6-3.

Men's doubles—Al and Bob Hoggs, Berkeley, defeated Sid Smith and Hiberly, Tacoma, 6-2, 6-4; Harrison and Lockwood, San Francisco, defeated Joy and Du Priest, Tacoma, 6-2, 6-0; Suhr and Scott, San Francisco and Tacoma, defeated Turner and Skidmore, Tacoma, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1.

Women's singles—Louise McFarland, Pasadena, defeated Peggy Hodgins, Vancouver, 6-0, 6-2.

Mixed doubles—Alberta Edtl and Taylor, Tacoma, defeated Sheila Parr and Charnock, Victoria and Pasadena, 2-6, 6-1, 6-4.

Junior singles—Harry Prusoff, Seattle, defeated Angus Clist, Seattle, 6-0, 6-1.

WON TRAP TITLE

Moose Jaw, July 14.—F. G. Schwager of Dundurn with a high card of 95 out of 100 targets, won the Saskatchewan singles championship at the Western Canada zone and provincial trapshooting tournament here yesterday.

Cubs Increase Their Lead By Half a Game When Others Falter

Chicago Divide Two Games; Pittsburgh Took Beating From Brooklyn

Heilman Hits Five Times, While Ruth and Sisler Each Crack Out Four

New York, July 14.—The Pittsburgh Pirates were a half-game further behind the Chicago Cubs to-day in the three-cornered fight for leadership of the National League. While the McCarthy Cubs were driving a double-header at Boston, the Pirates suffered a eleven-inning reverse at the hands of Brooklyn, 2-1. The world's champion, St. Louis Cards, went twelve innings to beat Philadelphia in 9-7, and gain on the leaders for their third place seat in the merry-go-round. Boston pounded three Cub pitchers for eighteen hits in the first game for a 6-3 victory, but Charlie Root chalked up his sixteenth win of the year in the second, 4-1.

The Giants were sluggish in the hottest weather of the year at New York, and Cincinnati defeated them 11-3. The Reds cracked out 19.

RUDE JOLT

Washington Senators suffered a rude jolt when the Detroit Tigers set them back twice, 7-3 and 13-9.

Gibson was credited with winning the first game, although he issued twelve passes, and had to be taken out of the box in the ninth. Stoner, who replaced him, struck out two of the three Washington batters in the last inning. Johnny Neun, Detroit first baseman, stole home in each game.

Harry Heilmann, after getting a home run and a single in the first game turned in a perfect average in the second game. His five hits in five times at the bat included three doubles.

Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig failed to hit homers at Cleveland, but Ruth's four hits were instrumental in the Yanks 5-3 victory over the Indians. Gehrig went hitless in three trips to the plate. Cleveland was in front until the eighth, when Ruth's double and Lazzeri's triple accounted for three runs. It was Cleveland's eighth straight defeat.

Philadelphia bunched hits in three innings off Ted Lyons to overcome Chicago's early lead and defeated the White Sox 7-3, at Chicago. It was

NANAIMO FAVORED

Vancouver, July 14.—Nanaimo City on their past performances will most likely be favored to beat New Westminster when the teams clash in the final of the Dominion football playoff series here on Saturday afternoon. Nanaimo has one of the strongest teams which has ever represented the island, but will meet worthy opposition in the Royals.

The game will be played to a finish owing to the fact that the winners must be ready to play at Edmonton next week against the Alberta champions in the first round of the western

Decisive Wins Are Registered In Net Tournament On Clay

Favorites Have Fairly Easy Day Winning Matches in City Championships

Decisive wins in all events were recorded yesterday in the city clay courts tourney now in progress at the Kingston Street Tennis Club. Only one match on the entire card required the full three sets, and in all these straight set decisions the favorites emerged victorious.

The feature match of the day occurred in the men's singles with McLoughlin and Elliott McSwain on opposite sides of the net. The latter got away to a good start and won the first set at 6-3, but the steady play of McLoughlin enabled him to capture the next two and the match, 3-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Miss Hope Leeming, the favorite for the ladies' singles title, was the first player in the tournament to reach the semi-finals which she did yesterday by downing Miss Beryl Nelson, 6-2, 6-1.

ONE-SIDED DOUBLES

The favored teams found the going rather easy in the doubles, particularly among the men. Here Ismay and Freeman took Hocking and Schwengers to a 7-5 first set, but all the other matches were pretty one-sided.

Marsh Gordon and Eric McCallum delighted the large gallery by a wonderful exhibition of doubles play, particularly at the net in their 6-1, 6-1 win over the Phillips brothers.

Paolino Hits Wills Head Over Heels To End of Fistic Road

Negro, Who Was Reckoned as Leading Challenger Not Long Ago, Put to Sleep

Spanish Woodchopper Uncovers Terrific Right; Wills Through as Fighter

Brooklyn, N.Y., July 14.—Displaying unexpected punching power, Paolino Uzcudun, the Spanish heavyweight, knocked out Harry Wills last night in the fourth round of a fifteen-round match, putting an abrupt end to the veteran negro's attempted comeback.

Three rounds of cumbersome mauling came to a dramatic climax when Paolino suddenly lashed out with a right hand blow to the jaw that toppled Wills as if he had been hit by the wood chopper's axe. Staggering up from a count of nine, Wills went down for the second and last time from another battery of right handers to the head.

It was the first time Wills had taken the full count of ten since he was stopped a dozen years ago by Sam Langford, the famous Boston "Tar Baby." To the assembled experts it seemed to mark a definite ending to the seventeen-year ring career of the negro, whose decline began last October in the same ring when he lost on a foul to Jack Sharkey.

WILLS WARNED

Wills was warned against hitting on the break in the first round. The negro tied up his opponent at close quarters and landing short choppy hooks to head and body.

The referee had trouble separating the fighters from a clinch in the second round, following which Paulino curled his left to the negro's ears; they slugged head to head for a few seconds, and Paulino landed an overhand right to Wills' head as the bell rang.

In the third round, Wills clubbed Paolino in the ribs with his right. Wills shot both hands to the head after taking a snappy left hand. The crowd yelled for action. Wills pecked away with short hooks, but they seemed to have little behind them.

HUNG ON THE ROPES

The final round began with a continuation of the desultory mauling, then Paolino suddenly leaped in and landed a right hander flush on the jaw. When Wills awoke after taking the count of nine, he was plainly all but out, groggy and reeling. Staggering back, he hung over the ropes as Paolino flailed away with both fists. Paolino landed another right hander which sent Wills toppling over backwards, and he took the count of ten without being able to rise.

The end came after one minute 27 seconds of the round had elapsed.

ELEVATES PAOLINO

Sharkey, who meets Jack Dempsey next week, was at the ringside to see the negro's downfall and witness a decisive victory that put Paolino back in the heavyweight spotlight.

The Spaniard's sudden acquisition of hitting power was as surprising as the quick turn that carried him to triumph after three rounds in which neither boxer had displayed much punch or effectiveness.

SWIMMING SIMPLIFIED

Intertiming of Head and Arms Important in Crawl Stroke

By JAMES A. LEE

Athletic Director, Cleveland (Ohio) Athletic Club

As correct intertiming of head and arm movements is essential to gain body balance should be given a brief bined action should be given a brief trial standing on botton before undertaking it in a swimming position.

Bend forward, extend right arm in front and left arm backward, hands touching the water, and turn to the left. Then, simultaneously sweep the right arm down and back, the left up and forward.

The right should press directly down, grazing the thigh in passing; the left should circle high and strike the surface close to where the right arm started.

Next turn head and shift shoulders to right, repeating the movements in the opposite direction, left moving down and back, right up and forward.

Start with a push-off, set the feet in motion, then press directly down and back with the left arm, keeping head and shoulders straight. As this arm nears the thigh, press down and back with the right arm, at the same time twisting the head and rolling the entire body, feet and all, to the left, bringing the left arm out of the water.

Retain the position now assumed while the left arm sweeps forward above the water and the right drives backward. Then, when the left arm hits the surface and starts to press down again, twist the head and roll the body right, keeping it so rolled throughout the forward motion of the right arm and backward of the left. Do not hurry the movements.

AT THE THEATRES

CONTINUOUS ACTION IN LONE-HAND SAUNDERS SHOWING AT COLUMBIA

The A. B. C's of perfect picture entertainment as interpreted by Fred Thompson in his western classics, are action, beauty and chivalry. In his latest F. B. O. production, "Lone Hand Saunders," now showing at the Columbia Theatre, these three are more in evidence than they have ever been before in a Thomson picture. The action is as steady, swift and continuous as the flow of a mountain stream. The beauty of the outdoor scenes makes the picture a pictorial delight, while the story is based on the chivalry of a man whose physical courage is excelled only by his splendid spirit of sacrifice. Reaves Eason is responsible for the excellent direction. Bess Flowers, who was such a charming heroine in "Hands Across the Border," is again seen to advantage playing opposite Thomson. Others in the cast are Billy Butts, Frank Hakney, Albert Priscoe, Bill Dyer and William Courtright. The adaptation for the screen was made by Del Andrews from the original story by Frank M. Clifton.

COMEDY-ROMANCE OF BIG LEAGUE BALL IS SHOWING

Warner Richmond, remembered for his work in "The Fire Brigade," plays the team manager in "Slide, Kelly, Slide," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new baseball romance at the Dominion Theatre. William Haines and Sally O'Neill head a notable cast in the new play, a vivid comedy romance of big league baseball. Actual scenes of the World Series are among the highlights of the big picture, which was directed by Edward Sedgwick.

DIFFICULT WORK TO PRODUCE LAUGHTER IN CAPITOL FILM

It frequently happens that the laughs that an audience gets out of a motion picture represent months of effort on the part of a vast movie organization and the guffaws are worth thousands of dollars each to the producers.

When you see "Fast and Furious," the Universal-Jewel production which is the feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre this week, with Reginald Denny in the starring role, you will see a concrete example of the "spare no expense" type of motion picture.

As an outstanding feature of "Fast and Furious," Director Mel Brown filmed some of the most startling auto racing sequences ever seen in any picture. Some of the best known race drivers appear in these scenes, together with their cars, many of which have broken world's speed records on the country's best tracks.

In order to film these shots to the best advantage a steel bridge was thrown across the speedway at a height just sufficient to allow the roaring mounts of the racers to pass underneath. From this vantage point the cameraman ground away as car after car hurtled by in a cloud of dust and the acrid odor of castor oil and burning rubber.

Denny himself takes part in the speed annihilating scenes. Playing opposite the star is beautiful Barbara Worth as the girl in the case. Claude Gillingwater, Armand Kaliz, Lee Moran, Chas. K. French, Wilson Benge and others are in the cast.

On the stage of the Capitol Theatre this week the management are offering to their patrons three exceptionally fine vaudeville acts, one of which appeared last week. This presentation, introducing Betty Anderson, lyric soprano, who has just finished an extensive engagement with Grauman's Egyptian Theatre in Los Angeles, has been held over for this week, in answer to the numerous requests for another appearance. She will offer an entirely new programme and in addition there are two other very fine acts, the first Magdalene Moore, a delightful concert pianiste, the second, Beatrice Lloyd, a dainty dancer, in an exhibition of Oriental and acrobatic dances. The Capitol Concert Orchestra under the baton of A. Prescott also is featured.

TOM MIX RIDES TO NEW SUCCESS IN THRILL FILM

Following their policy of showing their patrons the beauty spots of North America, Fox Films show "The Canyon of Light," at the Variety Theatre yesterday, in Yellowstone National Park. This latest story of the West, starring Tom Mix and his wonder horse Tony, is a gripping tale of love and adventure that is sure to please all who see it.

There is not a dull moment in the picture. In fact the first afternoon audience who witnessed it, were gripping their chairs most of the time with excitement. Dorothy Dwan plays the leading feminine role, while Ralph Sipperley, Barry Norton, William Walling, Carl Miller and Carmelita Geraghty have important parts in this production which was directed by Ben Stoloff.

YOUNG ACTRESS MAKES HIT IN "AUCTIONEER" NOW AT PLAYHOUSE

Marion Nixon, one of the most gifted of the young actresses in motion pictures to-day, gives a fine performance in "The Auctioneer," Fox Films' version of the stage success, at the Playhouse Theatre.

Miss Nixon plays the part of a little Irish girl who had, years before, been adopted by two Russians on their way to New York. Her love scenes with Gareth Hughes are particularly appealing. Miss Nixon's ability has great range for one so young.

George Sidney, star of the stage and screen, plays the title role. Doris Lloyd plays Sidney's wife. Others in the cast include Ward Crane and Sammy Cohen.

JACK WOLFENDEN LOVES HOME TOWN

Jack Wolfenden, popular hotel man of Victoria when the old King Edward Hotel here was flourishing, and member of an old-time Victoria family, has arrived in Victoria on a two weeks' visit with his mother, sister and brother and to look up former friends.

Since he left Victoria ten years ago, Mr. Wolfenden has become manager of the Elks Club of Oakland, Cal., which with its 3,980 members is one of the largest as well as one of the most lavishly furnished clubs in Western America.

One of the first of his old Victoria friends, Mr. Wolfenden looked up when he arrived here was Stephen Jones, proprietor of the Dominion Hotel.

Mr. Wolfenden motored up from California with his son, James. They covered six hundred miles of road in one day.

"I like to come back to the old home town," Mr. Wolfenden said. "Victoria will always be home to me."

When he lived in Victoria, Mr. Wolfenden was known as a great dog fancier. He said that one of his regrets on this visit is that the duck-shooting season is not on. He is known as a great shot.

Get Weight on Your Skinny Figure
New YEAST and IRON Adds Pounds of Flesh!
Easy to Take—Economical—Quick Results—or Pay Nothing

If you want pounds of good "stay-put" flesh on your bones, your skin freed of pimples and you wish to enjoy the best physical vigor, begin taking IRONIZED YEAST—two tablets at a meal—and note the amazing gain in weight and physical strength.

IRONIZED YEAST is two tonics in one—weight-building YEAST and strengthening IRON. Any physician will tell you that nothing builds sound flesh more quickly than these two ingredients in combination. In IRONIZED YEAST the Yeast and Iron are highly concentrated, greatly increasing their effectiveness and giving quick results.

In a short time ugly hollows in neck, face and shoulders fill up with firm flesh; sharp bony lines give place to pleasing curves and you will wonder why you put up with your skinny, ugly body so long. Simply continue taking IRONIZED YEAST until you are thoroughly satisfied with your gain in weight and energy. IRONIZED YEAST tablets are pleasant and nice to take. They do not upset the stomach nor cause gas or bloating. Get a full size treatment at any drug store today.

Make This "Money-Back" Test
So sure are we that IRONIZED YEAST will give you amazing health benefits, that we refund the small amount you pay the druggist for the trial treatment if you are not delighted with the quick results. If inconvenient to buy trial treatment at drug store, send $1.25 to IRONIZED YEAST CO., Fort Erie, Desk 1208M

CAUTION! While the amazing health-building value of IRONIZED YEAST tablets has been clearly and positively demonstrated in cases of lack of energy, indigestion, constipation, skin eruptions, poor complexion, and a generally weakened physical and mental condition, IRONIZED YEAST should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to having weight increased to normal.

CULLEN LANDIS, MOVIE ACTOR, IS NOW IN JAIL

Los Angeles, July 14.—Cullen Landis, motion picture actor, is in the county jail here to-day. He is serving a five-day term, imposed yesterday for failure to meet alimony payments due his divorced wife, Mignon Lebrun Landis.

The actor was sentenced yesterday by Superior Judge Robert H. Scott, who gave him until 2 p.m. to arrange his affairs and appear to begin serving his punitive term. Promptly on the hour Landis presented himself at the Hall of Justice Building and was assigned to and locked in a cell.

The movie actor was $1,000 behind in alimony payments. He testified he had made $17,000 since last November, out of which he had paid his former wife $2,700.

His case had been the subject of legal argument over a period of several months.

Ganges

Ganges, July 13.—William McFadden Jr. suffered a fractured skull on Tuesday morning while working at Mill No. 15, in the Cranberry, on Mr. Weight's property. Mr. McFadden was working in the timber and a limb from a tree fell and hit him on the head fracturing his skull. He was rushed to the Lady Minto hospital. Dr. Lawson is attending.

The combined annual sale of work and tea by the Women's Auxiliary, St. Paul's and St. Mark's Altar Societies was held on the grounds of Mrs. C. Oxenham's place on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Crofton and Mrs. Baker had the home cooking stall; Mrs. Wagg and Miss Rosman, plain sewing for the Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. E. Parsons and Mrs. Fletcher, St. Mark's Guild, plain and fancy sewing. Mrs. G. B. Young had the 10c grab parcel table and 5c grab parcel for children. Mrs. M. Norton was in charge of the Generous Goose. Mrs. Percy Beech was in charge of the afternoon tea. Rev. J. W. Flinton supervised the clock golf and the children's sports with L. Jenkins.

The officers of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church, Mrs. William Mouat, president; Mrs. S. Gregory, treasurer; and Mrs. Todd, secretary, gave a luncheon in the Mahon Hall to the forty-two girls of the club of the girls in training who have been camping on Mr. Toynbee's point. Then the Princess Royal made a special trip into Ganges to take the girls to Vancouver on its afternoon run from Victoria to Vancouver.

Dr. Stewart Beech and Son of Salmon Arm are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. Beech and friends at Ganges for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavin C. Mouat are spending two weeks' holiday, camping at North Salt Spring and motoring up Vancouver Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Price returned from their honeymoon trip up Vancouver Island and will reside at "Mereside."

Mrs. N. Smart, Miss Sorry and Mrs. E. Pope arrived on Tuesday and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Percy James for a few days.

The Singer mills are all closed for a few days and most of the mill men have gone to Vancouver to attend the funeral of Mr. Singer, owner of the mills, who died on Monday.

FINANCIAL — STOCKS — GRAIN — BONDS — MARKETS

Wall Street TO-DAY

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial

New York, July 14 (By R. P. Clark & Company Limited).—Shifting operations and profit-taking for a part of the day accounted for the market's irregular appearance. However, the selling was well taken and the bidding for steel, Atchison, and Southern Pacific, at their best levels for the year, had a favorable influence on sentiment. Later General Motors became a feature, with Studebaker also in active demand. The specialties, such as U.S. Cast Iron Pipe, Commercial, Solvents "B" and Baldwin, rallied sharply after being in early supply.

The standard rails reflected the probability of more funds seeking investment. Oils moved within a narrow channel.

One of the notable features was the response of copper shares to a firming in metal prices to 12⅝ cents. Both the bank rate consideration and the brokerage borrowings will be published after the close.

Ideas with respect to both accounted for the market turning rather quiet in the late afternoon.

New York, July 14 (By B.C. Bond Corporation's direct Wall Street wire)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says:

Bulls nailed on serene to-day. With the industrial averages indicating clear weather ahead, operations for the rise proceeded with quiet confidence. General business conditions continue to reflect the satisfactory status of affairs.

Calling of loans was conspicuous by its absence. Resumption of bullish operations on a broad scale in the motor shares indicated that the speculative fraternity was breaking away from the bugaboo about the Ford announcement. Nobody doubts Ford's ability as an automobile maker. But the trade believes he cannot work miracles. If he comes out to-morrow with a greatly-improved model, the trend of competition in the industry indicates that other producers will be right on his heels.

New York, July 14.—Whitney to-day says: "With both groups at new high records for the year there is nothing to look for in near future except higher prices.

"N.Y.O. & W. inaugurated its delayed move yesterday and should be well over 40 by week-end. Seaboard Air Line should perform similarly. Electric Boat is coming into its own as it is now rather clear that whatever else may develop at Geneva additional submarine tonnage for Japan will be agreed upon.

"I recommend American Telegraph and Telephone as an investment issue which is going to have a material speculative move. Case Threshing is another high priced issue which is due for an exceptional advance. Buy Standard Milling, Colorado Fuel and Iron, Sears-Roebuck, Lambert and Erie."

ONTARIO WHEAT POOL JOINS IN WITH WEST

Toronto, July 14.—For the purpose of marketing its product, the newly-formed Ontario Wheat Pool has affiliated with the similar organizations in the three western provinces, and it is expected, will soon have representation on what is known as the central selling board for the western pools. Members of the board have arrived in Toronto to complete arrangements.

BUTTE RECEIVERSHIP ENDS

Butte, Mont., July 14.—Two receivers of the North Butte Mining Company were discharged and receivership proceedings dismissed by Federal Judge George Bourquin to-day following a hearing on an order to show cause. The receivers were given ten days to file a report of their work.

The receivers, John W. Netkom of Duluth and Matt Essig of Butte, were appointed here June 16 by Judge McNary of Oregon.

To-day's ruling affects only the company's property in Butte. The receivership was started here under ancillary proceedings begun in Duluth, Minn.

To-day's Mining Markets

VICTORIA STOCKS ACTIVE TO-DAY

The Victoria market this morning broke out into a spurt of activity that surprised even brokers themselves on the floor of the exchange. In Vancouver there was also much activity with prices moving faster than they have since the Summer season set in.

Rufus, which has been holding around 10, until heavy offerings appeared this week, broke to 7½ to-day and then closed on the range of 5½ to 8. Some holders are apparently willing to take these present low prices in Rufus and pocket their loss rather than carry the stock longer.

Dunwell broke to 137 in Vancouver. This setback came as a surprise to the market traders, as it has come on top of the exceptionally encouraging news from the mine in connection with the new big vein which President R. M. Stewart is opening up personally. In Victoria, however, Dunwell sold at 140.

George Copper and Porter-Idaho were the strongest features of both markets to-day. While Coast Copper on small sales slumped to 13.90 in Vancouver, George Copper there sold at 79, which is a new high for this move. In Victoria 600 shares of George sold at 78 and the market closed tight. Porter-Idaho sold up to a new high of 21½ in Vancouver. Its neighbor, Marmot Metals, also displayed activity to-day.

Sunloch to-day sold down to 75 here. The stock will likely be quiet for some time now, as it is officially announced that the Britannia deal for the Sunloch and Gabbro properties has been postponed indefinitely.

Home oil has staged a come-back in Vancouver.

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

Winnipeg, July 14—Lack of support combined with moderate selling pressure undermined values on the Winnipeg grain market to-day. Closing losses were from ½ to 1⅛. July option led the decline, due largely to the unwinding of spreads. There was no trace of export business but local interests were absorbing supplies on the down grade.

Lacking reliable confirmation, reports of cereal rust in parts of Western Canada were ignored and played no part in the price fluctuations.

Barley and oats met with fair inquiry at the start but faded near the close.

Chicago, July 14 (By B. C. Bond Corporations Direct Pit Wire)—One thing that is hurting our market is the traveling legislators. An agriculturist meeting at Minneapolis has been in session for several days and so far as press reports go, the declarations have all been made by politicians. The average congressman is a perennial candidate for re-election and is this year showing his wares more than usual. We observe that practically all corn products are bringing a fairly good price now.

Wheat continued its decline to-day which was started by the issuance of the Government report showing a tremendous improvement in the wheat outlook since June 1.

We have seen no threshing returns from soft wheat territory that did not show disappointing yields. Even from Nebraska, which is supposed to be the most perfect state this year, we have had several reports of returns away below expectations.

Foreigners were evidently satisfied with to-day's break because there was evidence that they bought both cash wheat and futures.

Corn was heavy. Selling on the weakness in wheat finally dislodged a good many local holders who have been buying on the theory that the growing crop could not be matured in any large volume.

SUGAR

New York, July 14.—The raw sugar market was quiet early to-day, but the undertone was steady. There were buyers at last paid prices of 4.52 for Cuban, duty paid, but holders were asking from 1-32 to 1-16 cents more and no sales were reported.

The refined sugar market was firmer, with all refiners now quoting 6.10 for fine granulated. There was not much inquiry reported.

The trade had apparently supplied their more immediate requirements at the 6.00 level prevailing yesterday.

Montreal Stocks

Montreal, July 14 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct wire).—Noon letter.—For a time this morning it looked as if another bear move had been launched on the local market. The bears took advantage of the fact that many traders are absent from the Street to pay a little attention to the traders, assuming that little support would be given to the market. The public utilities were chosen as the targets, and such issues as Quebec Power, Shawinigan, Brazilian and Montreal Power declined briskly. At the close, however, the trend was again in the upward direction. Quebec Power registered a 12-point decline to 252. Brazilian opened ¼ down at 161¼, declined to 158¾ and moved up to 160 in the last minutes. Shawinigan, from an opening of 78½, eased off to 75⅝ and rallied to 76¾. Montreal Power closed at 81 for board lots but a number of odd lots were changing hands at 82 when the gong rang. One of the few strong spots on the list was Wayagamack, which advanced one point to 62. Brompton opened firm at 26½ and closed one under that price. Abitibi improved ¼ to 95¼ and an odd lot of Spanish River preferred sold at 114½, up ¼. Fifteen shares of Laurentide changed hands at 93¾, down ¼. In the specialty group price changes were not important.

SNARED

A Story of One Wonderful Week

By MALCOLM DUART

Copyright 1927

Nadine tossed her towel to a chair and followed, Mrs. Smith calling out angry demands that she return and help to prepare dinner. "I'll be back in a few minutes," the girl said, over her shoulder.

The boy Smith, still in intent pursuit of the comic pages, had strewed the papers on the ground beside him. Pierce and Nadine took these, one after another, and made careful search for further news about themselves.

There was one other item—a brief one.

"I don't think papa notified the police and the sheriff right away," concluded Nadine.

"Of course he'd wait a day," said Pierce. "And you know, you haven't been gone from home so terribly long. It takes time for a search to get really started."

"It seems like years," said the girl, following the columns of the paper with her finger. "It doesn't seem possible—why Charley, this has all happened this week!"

"What week did you think it happened in?" asked Smith, facetiously, raising his head.

"I'd swear I'd been here a month," said the girl. She resumed her search for other details in the paper. "Why look!" A dispatch from Joliet had caught her eye. She held the paper up to Pierce. He glanced at it.

"This'll interest you, Smithy," he said, and went on to read aloud:

"Renewed search for the slayers of a man known as Schwartz, Bodey, Smith and Brown, killed in a speakeasy brawl here five weeks ago, has followed the offer of $10,000 reward by a local detective agency, acting for a client they refuse to name. An ill-favored boy of nineteen and a man of refined appearance, both implicated in the killing, have been sought by police. The reward mentions a man known, like the victim, as Brown, Schwartz, Bodey, or Smith."

Young Smith leaped to his feet, his face purple, and stamped in anger.

"There it goes again! 'An ill-favored boy of nineteen!' They all pick on me!"

Raging, he took his departure, kicking at the heavy clumps of dried grass and talking to himself.

Pierce looked over his paper at Nadine. "Brown—and Bodey," he said, softly. "Do you notice those two names? And an ill-favored boy of nineteen and a man of refined appearance. Smith and Bodey—and Bodey carried the same names that Smithy's father did. Can you figure that out?"

CHAPTER XXXII

The problem of why John Edward Bodey would be sought under the names of "Schwartz" and "Smith," as well as under his own name and the title of "Brown" that he and his brother had assumed on coming to the farm, possessed Pierce's thoughts and Nadine's all day Saturday.

Mrs. Smith sought the newspaper, read the item in tight-mouthed silence, and refused to comment at all. Her son avoided the subject, and spent the greater part of the day hanging over the fence, gazing into the distance.

"It's the queerest thing I ever heard of," Nadine assured Pierce from time to time, as she bustled around the house.

As they had predicted, Mrs. Smith's husband did not come. The youth and the girl saw Stewart Bodey, his letter in his hand, standing before the house on two occasions, looking down the road. Each time he shook his head and returned to his work.

The mail carrier's observations on the state of the fields had led Bodey to hitch up the horses, and himself to undertake the ploughing of the land next to the dwelling. Stripping off his collar, coat and vest, he rolled up his sleeves—revealing arms as muscular and as thin as those of his younger brother — and patiently followed the plow up and down the furrows.

The grooves that he left in the brown earth were irregular, and wavy. Once, as he came with his two old animals to the fence, Pierce asked him if he ever had ploughed before.

"A fair enough question," said the man, smiling. "I used to plough in my youth, but I seem to have lost the knack." He looked back at the wrinkled pattern he had made. "Might have been done by a drunken man," he began. Then, with a quick flush, he amended the sentence. "It's the work of an amateur."

Refusing Pierce's offer to take his place, he trudged away, thrown from side to side by the lurching of the heavy handles of the plow.

He finished his task in that field before night came, and after feeding and watering the horses, washed his face and hands in the basin that Nadine brought to him.

"There's no bathtub, if I remember rightly," he said.

She laughed. "I've bathed twice—by using that washbasin," she said. "Your brother used the old washtub."

"John Edward can always find what he want, any place," said the elder brother. "At least, he can find a good substitute. By the way—I heard Irene telling her son that supplies were running low again."

"Mr. Pierce brought some," said the girl. "We have enough smoked meat, but the fresh meat's all gone, and we need more bread and a lot of things. There are more people here than we started with, you know."

He nodded. "Too bad. I can understand John Edward's detaining you and Mr. Pierce here for Irene's sake, but surely it is hard on you. The least I can do is to help make you comfortable." He turned to look at the horses, quietly feeding before the stable. "When we've eaten, I'll get on one of these poor old beasts and go to market—though I don't know where the market is."

The girl called Pierce, who had been busy with a hammer and some boards on the upper floor of the house. He appeared in the yard a minute later.

"Been making some shelves upstairs," he explained, holding a mashed finger for her inspection. "We need a place to shave, and to put our basin on, and a better place than the floor to hang our clothes. There aren't any hooks in the closets."

Nadine sympathized with him for his damaged finger, and told him of Stewart Bodey's proposal to go on a purchasing expedition.

"I'll go," offered Pierce. "I was there before, you know."

The man shook his head. "It won't work out favorably, I'm afraid. Irene told me to-day that she did not intend to let you or Miss Rollins out of her sight. She fears for her son, naturally."

"Your brother wasn't afraid," said Pierce. "He gave me the money to get the things with."

"A man is bolder than a woman," returned Bodey. "Mrs. Smith is timid."

There was a gleam of amusement in Nadine's eyes. "I thought she was a forceful woman," she observed.

"Quite so—quite so," said the man, seriously. "A queen among women. But not bold, as men are." He returned to the subject of provender. "Just tell me how to get to your market town, and I'll bring as much as I can on horseback. There doesn't appear to be a wagon here."

Pierce gave the directions, and while they ate in the lamp-lighted kitchen, Mrs. Smith outlined the household needs.

"I'd give you the money," the woman added, resentfully, "but John Edward got us into this place here, and you've got to provide. Besides, I haven't any money, except just enough to pay my fare from Joliet home."

"You said you didn't have none at all," said her son.

"None for you," she returned. "None for me, either, as far as that's concerned. Heaven knows I don't favor spending my money riding on the railroad, when I need so many things."

"I wish you'd let me help, Irene," said Bodey, wistfully.

She laid down her knife. "Trying to make me feel cheap and poor, as usual!" she said, with great bitterness.

"But I'm not—indeed I'm not," he returned. "It would make me only too happy if I could lift some of your burden, my dear!"

"I'm not your 'dear' and you 'tend to your own happiness. I'll 'tend to mine," she snapped. "I suppose I can depend on you not to shout around the village that Elbert's here—since your precious brother's mixed up in my trouble, too."

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Redberries

Copright, 1927, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By Howard R. Garis)

I haven't sold one glass of lemonade

"Oh, Daddicums, it isn't Fourth of July!" cried Bimble, a cute little boy rabbit as he looked out of a window in the hollow stump bungalow one morning and saw his father hopping down the path.

"I know it isn't Fourth of July," answered Mr. Longears. "What caused you to think that I had any idea it was?"

"Why, you have a big firecracker in your paw," answered Bimble. "Please don't shoot it off until I come down, Daddicums! I want to hear it go bang!"

"Nonsense!" laughed Mr. Longears, twinkling his pink nose at Bimble. "I have no firecracker."

"Then what is that red thing in your paw?" asked the little rabbit.

"It is a red pail," said Mr. Longears, "and, if you ask me why I have a red pail, as I know you are going to, I will say that I am going to pick redberries and I thought it best to take along a red pail to match them in color."

"Oh, are you going berrying again?" exclaimed Bimble. "Then please let me come!"

"Take me, too, Daddicums! Take me!" begged half a dozen little rabbit children, swarming around their father. "We want to go berrying!"

"Yes, do take them!" added Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy coming out on the front porch with a broom in her paws and the dusting brush tied to her tail. "They have been playing store and mud pies on the steps until they're a sight! Take them to the woods with you!"

"All right—come along, bunnies!" invited Mr. Longears, and soon he and the little rabbits were on their way to pick redberries.

The day before they had picked blackberries which Mrs. Longears made into a pie, and Jingle, if you remember, thought she had been caught by a bear. But it was only a blackberry vine pulling at her dress in the back and scratching her.

"What are redberries good for?" asked Bimble, as he walked along with his brothers Stumble and Bumble. Stumble walked between the other two rabbits so when he fell down, as he often did, they could pick him up.

"Redberries, or raspberries, are fine for making into pudding," said Uncle Wiggily. "I hope you will pick many of them, though they are not as plentiful as blackberries."

"Oh, we'll pick bushels of them!" cried Jingle and Jangle.

Reaching a field where there were vines on which grew redberries, Uncle Wiggily began to gather them in his red tin pail, while the little bunnies used, as they had done the day before, baskets made from large grape vine leaves.

As Uncle Wiggily had said, the redberries were not so plentiful as the blackberries had been the day before. But he was a clever rabbit and knew where to look for them. He also showed the bunny boys and girls where to gather the fruit and soon the red pail was well filled, and so were all the little vine baskets.

"I think we have enough berries now," said Uncle Wiggily after a while. "We had better hop home so mother can make the pudding."

"But we haven't had any adventure yet," objected Bumble.

"That's so," said Mr. Longears. "No adventure at all. I wonder——"

But just then, down near the road along which the rabbits must hop to get home, a sad voice was heard saying:

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear! I haven't sold any and what will the poor mice do!"

"What's that?" whispered Jingle.

"I don't know, but I'll see," offered Uncle Wiggily. "But don't be afraid whatever you do." He hopped to the edge of the road and looked over the tall weeds. Then he smiled for he saw Baby Bunty at a little roadside lemonade stand. Bunty was selling cool drinks.

"At least I am trying to sell lemonade," Bunty said, sadly, "to make money to send some poor little city mice children away to the country for fresh, Summer air. But nobody has come past this road at all, and I haven't sold one glass of lemonade and I haven't taken in any money and—Oh, dear!"

"There, there, Bunty! Dry your tears!" said kind Uncle Wiggily. "I will buy some lemonade of you," and he did, forty thirteen glasses, one for himself, one for each of the forty eleven little bunnies and one for Baby Bunty herself. Then he said: "I think your lemonade would sell better if it could be colored red." So he crushed some redberries and made the rest of the lemonade a beautiful pink and not long after that Baby Bunty sold every glass she had left. So she made a lot of money for the poor city mice children to be sent to the country and she was happy.

Now if the electric light doesn't go out in the dark and make funny faces at the front porch, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the blueberries.

may lead to the most sensational comeback in ring history.

Despite the constant efforts of Jack's handlers to hold him to the grind that comprises learning a defence for Sharkey's cutting left hand, Dempsey showed yesterday that he was unable to keep in leash the terrific punch that he knows is again in his fighting machinery. Jack loosed the full force of his lashing attack against the giant Indian chief, Matoquas, and the full power of three lefts to the body quickly smashed the brave to the canvas. It was the second time in two workouts that Jack had flattened the Oklahoman.

GAINS MADE HIM STEP

Dempsey worked two rounds against one sparring partner, Larry Gains, Canadian negro heavyweight. Gains is quite elusive for a 185-pounder, and can throw left jabs and hooks with tantalizing speed and effectiveness in something of the Sharkey style. Jack, however, believes that any man hit squarely in the ribs with a thudding left hook will soon lose speed, marksmanship and punching power. Yesterday he proved his point.

All through the first round Larry boxed swiftly, shooting telling lefts to the head that drew a thin trickle of blood from Jack's rebuilt nose. Dempsey stormed after the negro on the balls of his feet, but could not land a telling blow.

NAILED AT LAST

Half way through the second round they milled at the same fast clip with Jack still taking a good deal of punishment about the head, although he strove manfully to catch Gains's left with the right glove in accordance with the teachings of the daily boxing lesson.

Then Jack caught the Canadian with a full right hand uppercut to the body. Gains stiffened, his legs lost their suppleness and Dempsey whaled him about for the rest of the session.

Eddie Collins's day and the former manager of the White Sox was presented with an automobile.

SISLER HITTING WELL

The Browns landed on three Boston Red Sox pitchers for eighteen hits at St. Louis and took the second game of the series, 14-3. George Sisler, who got four hits yesterday, got the same number to-day, making eight hits in as many times at the bat.

In two previous fights in New York Paolino had not demonstrated title punching power, especially with his right hand, which has been broken several times and was considered his least effective weapon. Last night he not only employed his right to greater advantage, but had enough power to knock over the 215-pound negro head over heels.

WILLS LACKS PUNCH

At no time did the negro show any power in his punches. He pecked at Paulino with short blows and spent most of his time blocking or tying up the Spaniard in clinches.

Paolino, who was shut out of the heavyweight title contending programme this Winter in spite of a colorful start, was joined by numerous of his countrymen in a wild demonstration after the bout. The Spaniard performed a few flip-flops to exhibit his jubilation, winding up by standing erect on his head.

Difficulty in transforming the field into a boxing arena after the finish of an eleven-inning baseball game between the Pirates and Dodgers delayed the fight programme an hour and 20 minutes after the scheduled start.

A crowd estimated at 20,000 sweltering in shirt sleeves on one of the hottest nights of the Summer, cheered Paolino's victory.

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES S. O. S. —By Martin

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

"The Stars Incline, But Do Not Compel"

(Copyright)

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1927

Good luck attends this day, if astrology is to be trusted, for benefic aspects are supposed to be strong.

Some good fortune for farmers is foreshadowed and there will be organizations in which they will register forcefully.

Under this direction of the stars political pots will boil and campaign activities will be more or less puzzling, it is forecast.

Common sense is supposed to be encouraged under this planetary government and for that reason this should be a lucky day for personal publicity.

This is read as an auspicious direction of the stars for all sorts of initiative and plans started to-day should bring success.

Aviation again is subject to the best direction of the stars and it will have much government aid in ways not immediately made public, the seers predict.

All that pertains to the intellect is well governed while this configuration lasts. Educators should benefit.

Lawyers have the prophecy of extraordinary responsibilities in international affairs and from among them will rise new leaders in governmental matters, it is foretold.

For the United States such progress is prognosticated that even the most sanguine would not acknowledge its possibility, astrologers announce.

Women are now training for supreme service to the state and the nation, if the seers are to be believed.

Children born at this time are to be so perfect in body and so keen of mind, it is prophesied that they will outstrip the people of the past in beauty and intelligence.

Now comes a period when simplicity will be fashionable as reactionary forces make themselves felt.

Thrift and economy should be practiced, if there is any foresight, according to astrologers who appear to foresee new economic problems with general rises in prices.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of possible gain through inheritance of property.

Children born on this day probably will be endowed with many gifts. Eloquence is often a gift of those subject to to-day's sign.

THE TINYMITES
BY MAL COCHRAN

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"Oh, my," said Coppy Tinymite, "It sure would bring me much delight, if I could just hop in that falls and drink of syrup clear. 'Course I know how to swim real well. It seems to me that would be swell. The syrup looks so cooling that there is no cause for fear."

The Princess laughed aloud and said, "You'd better stand right here instead. That syrup's really very hot, and you'd be badly burned." The thought of it made Coppy shake. Said he, "Well that is my mistake, and don't blame me. Each day we live there's something new that's learned."

Some syrup that splashed up on land, cooled off real quick and looked quite grand. The Princess picked a portion up and passed it all around. "Oh, my, but this tastes mighty good," said Clowny. "Gee, I wish I could just fill my pockets with the stuff that's lying on the ground."

They stood and watched the syrup run and really had a lot of fun. And then their friend the Princess said, "Let's find the popcorn man. He can't be very far away, 'cause he is making crisp to-day. If we can just locate him we will help him, if we can."

They walked around behind the falls, and then they heard some close by calls. "Hello there, everybody. You are just in time to aid." And then a big form came in view. The Tinies shouted, "Howdy, do." And, very shortly they were watching how his crisp was made.

It wasn't long till all the band had joined the man and lent a hand. He gave them little shovels, and the work seemed just like play. They scooped the crisp, and mixed it well, 'cause this was crisp that soon would sell. And then 'twas put in boxes for the man to ship away.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINE CAUSES DISCUSSION

Petition Expresses Satisfaction of Many Residents

Saanich Trustees Discuss Conditions at Prospect School

Declaring that conditions at Prospect Lake School are satisfactory, a petition signed by sixty-four residents sending children to this school was last night presented to the Saanich School Board by a deputation headed by H. T. Oldfield.

The petition was designed to combat representations made recently in another petition, which had urged inquiry by the board into the discipline of the school.

Trustee Mrs. Beckwith recalled her support of continuance of Prospect Lake School when the board had considered closure. She termed "base ingratitude" the action of signatories. Alternatively she believed the petition had been signed by many under a misunderstanding.

Chairman Hobbs declared the document evidence of the ease with which signatures may be obtained to almost any petition.

Trustee Horner declared that the poard has not discussed closure of Prospect Lake School during his term as trustee.

"Owing to the manner this petition has been circulated, the fact that names thereon are those on the earlier petition or of persons who have expressed contrary opinions, I thought it well that discussion should take place while the deputation is present," declared Chairman Hobbs, before promising the delegation that careful attention would be given the petition. He thanked the delegation for their inferest in school affairs.

Trustee Thorpe mentioned the record of failures in the entrance examinations of last year, declaring "comparatively with other schools it has not a good record."

Trustee Horner took a contrary view, the percentage of passes had been satisfactory in his opinion, and on many visits to the school he had noted a remarkable quietude, evidence of high discipline. He recalled that some years ago discipline had been notably lacking, whereas now the Provincial Inspector's report showed discipline to be good.

MALE PRINCIPALS

Trustee Macnicol considered that male principals should be placed in all the schools of Saanich, control of boys being beyond the average woman. Trustee Mrs. Beckett agreed, pointing out that, in recent years, Saanich has placed three male principals in schools previously controlled by women.

Islands

Galiano Island, July 14.—The Diamond Jubilee celebration were most successful. About 200 people were present, inany coming from Mayne Island. A splendid address was given by the Rev. R. D. Porter of Mayne Island. Colonel Fawkes presented the medals. Patriotic songs and hymns were sung. There was a general parade and the saluting of the flag. War veterans wearing their medals were present from both island, also many representatives of the early pioneers. The following trustees of Galiano headed the parade E. Scoones, F. Murcheson and A. Cazer, and from Mayne Island J. Bennett and Mr. Foster.

Large tents with tables were used for refreshments. A lot of boats were in the bay and decorated cars and other vehicles added to the gaiety of the scene. Thanks were given to C. Stewart for the use of the field and for the catering and to the committee Mrs. Lord, L. Miller Higgs, P. Scoones, G. Georgeson and F. Murcheson. The winners of the races and sports were as follows:

Mrs. Dean and children have gone to Bellingham. They have been staying with Mrs. Stretton.

ALIEN SMUGGLING TRIAL

Los Angeles, July 14.—Two aviators, charged with conspiracy to smuggle Chinese into this state from Mexico, were identified at their trial yesterday by one of their alien passengers as the pilots of the aeroplanes. Ching Chuey identified both Emmett Longbrake and Jack O'Brien, the defendants, as the pilots of the planes.

SHEEP PROMOTION FAIR TO BE HELD

Object is to Develop Industry on Vancouver and Gulf Islands

Will be First in Province Under New Policy

The first district sheep fair organized in the Province under the policy inaugurated by the Sheep Promotion Committee of British Columbia will be held under the auspices of the Vancouver, Island Flock Masters' Association in conjunction with the Cowichan Agricultural Society's annual fair to be held at Duncan on September 16 and 17 this year.

The objects of the sheep fair are the promotion of the sheep industry on Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands, the development of uniform quality of both wool and mutton in suitable breeds of sheep, and to encourage the raising of pure bred sheep.

The Sheep Promotion Committee of British Columbia consists of Dr. A. Knight, provincial livestock commissioner; C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, secretary, Advisory Board of Farmers' Institutes; Thomas P. MacKenzie, provincial commissioner of grazing, and Arthur Morton, Dominion sheep and swine promoter for British Columbia.

The officers of the Vancouver Island Flock Masters' Association are George H. Hadwen, president; B. Young, vice-president, and R. Brett, secretary.

The general rules of the Cowichan Agricultural Society's Fair will be applicable. Entries for prizes and prize-money will only be open to exhibitors from Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands.

Entries should be made to R. Brett, secretary Vanvouver Island Flock Masters' Association, Duncan, or to W. Waldron, secretary, Cowichan Agricultural Soicety, Duncan.

The breeds for which prizes are offered are Shropshires, Hampshires, Oxfords, Suffolks and Southdowns, and includes classes for ram, two-shear and over; ram, shearling; ram lamb, ewe, two-shear and over; ewe, shearing and ewe lamb; pen of five lambs, bred by exhibitor; ram, champion; ewe, champion; pen of five grade breeding ewes; pen of five grade ewe lambs; pen of five butcher lambs and best butcher lamb. Cash prizes are offered, ranging from $6 to $20 for first and $1 to $5 for fourths; also a silver cup will be presented by the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Duncan, for the best ram exhibited by Vancouver Island and Gulf Island exhibitors.

In the wool classes prizes will be given for the best fleeces entered. The judges will, in their discretion, place the fleeces in their respective classes, combing or clothing, and prizes will be awarded for the best fleece, clothing and best fleece, combing. Awards will be placed on the following basis: Fleece neatly tied and properly rolled, thirty points; freedom from tags and foreign matter, thirty-five points, freedom from second cuts, thirty-five points.

No sheep must be shown in more than one class, and all exhibits must be on the ground at 11 a.m. on Friday, September 16.

Special educational exhibits will be presented by the Dominion livestock branch.

Judging competitions will be held for boys and girls under twenty-one and adults.

Demonstrations will be given in connection with sheep work.

Bodies of Plane Victims Are Buried

Winnipeg, July 14.—A funeral with full military honors yesterday was accorded the body of J. T. Eardley of Locre, Man., one of the three victims of the aeroplane disaster near Hilbre, Man., Monday.

The bodies of F. J. Wrong and William C. Weaver have been forwarded respectively to Ottawa and Melfort, Sask., for burial.

The airmen, who were engaged on a Federal topographical survey, were hurled to their doom while the plane was traveling at an altitude of 3,000 feet. A bolt of lightning is believed to have been the cause.

Charles W. Barker Died in Winnipeg

Winnipeg, July 14.—Charles W. Barker, seventy-one-year-old pioneer of Manitoba, died here yesterday. Mr. Barker first came to Winnipeg in 1882 and helped to lay the Canadian Pacific line through the Crow's Nest Pass. He was a native of Colborne, Ont.

Seattle Now After Big Grain Trade

Charles E. Hunt head of the financial and commercial department of The Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and known all along the Coast for his authoritative articles in that newspaper, has been spending his holidays in Victoria at the Dominion Hotel. His wife and daughter came with him.

Some of the things Mr. Hunt told The Times were:

"I like Victoria and the way we've been treated here. It is a beautiful place.

"Seattle is still experiencing solid and rapid growth in the Puget Sound area. It will be still better and Seattle will be still larger when we get the railway differential removed and the big grain crop of Washington State is handled through our port. At present most of this grain is handled through southern ports, because of the railway rate which discriminates against Puget Sound."
